SHARE CAPITAL AND VARIATION OF RIGHTS

4. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.
5. Subject to the provisions of section 57 of the Law, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may by special resolution determine.
6. If at any time the share capital of the company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. The provisions of Article 88 regarding the passing of resolutions in writing by the members shall apply mutatis mutandis.
7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.
8. The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 52 of the Law, provided that the percentage rate or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the said section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of 10 per cent of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to 10 per cent of such price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment in cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful.
9. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except where it is otherwise provided by these Articles or by law or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

Notwithstanding the above, but always subject to the provisions of section 112 of the Law, the company may if it so desires and if it has been notified in writing thereof, recognize the existence of a trust on any share although it may not register the same in the Register of Members of the company. Such recognition by the company is made known to the trustees by letter and is irrevocable as long as such trust remains in existence, even though trustees or any of them may be replaced.

10. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled without payment to receive within two months after the allotment or lodgment of the transfer (or within such other period as the conditions of issue shall provide) one certificate for all his shares or several certificates each for one or more of his shares upon payment of 20 cent for every certificate after the first, or such less sum as the directors shall from time to time determine. Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid up thereon. Provided that in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons the company shall not be found to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.

11. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed upon payment of a fee of 20 cents or such less sum and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of any out-of-pocket expenses of the company for investigating the evidence adduced, as the directors think fit.
12. The company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, provision of any security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the company or in its holding company nor shall the company make a loan for any purpose whatsoever on the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this regulation shall prohibit transactions mentioned in the proviso to section 53 (1) of the Law.

LIEN

13. The company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys for any reason and for any cause whatsoever presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article. The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon as well as on any capital or other monies which may at any time be payable by the company to such person.
14. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or bankruptcy.
15. To give effect to any such sale the directors may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
16. The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

ISSUE OF SHARES

17. All additional shares approved to be issued shall be offered to the members in proportion to the number of shares already held by them and such offer shall be made by notice fixing the number of shares which each member is entitled to be allotted and restricting the time in which the offer if not accepted, shall be deemed as having been declined and after which time or on receipt of a declaration by the member to whom such a notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may allot or otherwise dispose the same to such persons and under such conditions as they would deem fit.

CALLS ON SHARES

18. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall exceed one – fourth of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the - payment of the last preceding call, and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the directors may determine.

19. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.
 20. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
 21. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate not exceeding 9 per cent per annum as the directors may determine, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
 22. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
 23. The directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
 24. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding (unless the company in general meeting shall, subject always to the provisions of any law in force at the time, otherwise direct) 9 per cent per annum, as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member paying such sum in advance.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

25. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
26. Subject to such restrictions in these Articles as may be applicable, any member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve.
27. The directors may, independently of any other provision of the Articles, and in addition to their rights under Article 28 hereinbelow, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefore, decline to register the transfer of a share to a person of whom they shall not approve, and they may also decline to register the transfer of any share on which the company has a lien.
28. The directors may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless:-
 - (a) a fee of 20 cents or such lesser sum as the directors may from time to time require is paid to the company in respect thereof;
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
 - (c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
29. If the directors refuse to register a transfer they shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

30. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days in any year.
31. The company shall be entitled to charge a fee not exceeding 20 cents on the registration of every probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, or other instrument.
32. Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, the following transfers of shares to members of the company or not and either by sale, exchange, gift, transmission by law or otherwise are freely permitted and the directors shall forthwith approve any such transfer and shall proceed to the registration of the same in the Register of Members of the company:-
- (a) Transfer to father, mother, spouse, child, grandson or granddaughter of the transferor (in these Articles called "members of the family").
 - (b) If the member is one or more trustees, transfer to another trustee or trustees if any previous one or ones were replaced or in case additional trustees are appointed.
 - (c) Transfer by an individual member to a company controlled either together or separately by such member and/or by any members of his family and/or by a company controlled by them or by any of them. For the purposes of this paragraph a company is deemed to be controlled if the controlling person, physical or legal, holds therein more than 50% of the votes.
 - (d) Transfer by a company member to an individual or to another company holding in the transferor company more than 25% of the votes.
 - (e) Transfer by a company member to another company which is a subsidiary or holding of the transferor company or to another company controlled by such subsidiary or holding company. For the purposes of this paragraph the words "subsidiary" and "holding company" have the usual meaning and the words "controlled company" mean having in such company more than 50% of the votes.

Provided that the free transfer of shares as above provided shall not be allowed if by such transfer there would result, directly or indirectly, the transformation of this company to a non exempt one, if it is already an exempt company or to a public company, except if the directors would otherwise resolve unanimously, in which case such transfer would be freely allowed and without the exercise of the rights of option, as provided hereinbelow.

PRE-EMPTION RIGHTS

33. No transfer of shares to any member of the company or not, which is not provided by these Articles to be freely allowed, may be effected so long as any member wishes to buy such shares at their fair value which shall be fixed as hereinbelow provided and the pre-emption rights hereinafter set forth shall have been exhausted:-
34. Every member who desires to transfer any share or shares (hereinafter called the "vendor") shall give to the company notice in writing of such desire (hereinafter called "transfer notice"). No transfer notice shall relate to more than one class of shares. Subject as hereinafter mentioned, a transfer notice shall constitute the company the vendor's agent for the sale of the share or shares specified therein (hereinafter called "the said shares") in one or more lots, at the discretion of the directors, to the members other than the vendor, at a price which the company's auditors for the time being, shall in writing under their hand, certify to be in their opinion the fair value thereof, as between a willing seller and a willing buyer. On receipt of the auditors' certificate as aforesaid the company shall furnish a certified copy thereof to the vendor and the vendor shall be entitled, by notice in writing given to the company within ten days of the service upon him of the said certified copy, to cancel the company's authority to sell the said shares; the cost of obtaining the certificate shall be borne by the company unless the vendor shall give notice of cancellation as aforesaid in which case he shall bear the said cost.

35. Upon the price being fixed as aforesaid and provided the vendor shall not give notice of cancellation as aforesaid the company shall forthwith, by notice in writing, inform each member of the company other than the vendor, of the number and price of the said shares and invite each such member to apply in writing to the company within twenty-one days of the date of dispatch of the notice (which date shall be specified therein) for such maximum number of the said shares (being all or any thereof) as he shall specify in such application.
36. If the said members shall within the said period of twenty-one days apply for all or any of the said shares, the company shall allocate the said shares (or so many of them as shall be applied for as aforesaid) first, to and amongst the applicants who are registered or unconditionally entitled to be registered in respect of shares of the same class, in case where there are more than one class of shares, (and in case of competition, pro rata according to the number of shares of such class of which they are registered or unconditionally entitled to be registered as holders) and secondly (if any of the said shares shall remain after such applicants have been satisfied in full), to and amongst the remaining applicants (and in case of competition, pro rata according to the number of shares in the company in respect of which they are registered or unconditionally entitled to be registered as holders) provided that no applicant shall be obliged to take more than the maximum number of shares specified by him as aforesaid.
37. The vendor shall be bound to transfer the shares comprised in an allocation notice to the purchasers named therein at the time and place therein specified; and if he shall fail to do so, the directors of the company or some other person appointed by the directors shall be deemed to have been appointed attorney of the vendor with full power to execute, complete and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the vendor, transfers of the shares to the purchasers thereof against payment of the price to the company. On payment of the price to the company the purchaser shall be deemed to have obtained a good quitance for such payment and on execution and delivery of the transfer the purchaser shall be entitled to insist upon his name being entered in the register of members as the holder by transfer of the shares. The company shall forthwith pay the price into a separate bank account in the company's name and shall hold such price in trust for the vendor and when so requested by the vendor the company shall pay the entire price to him.
38. During the six months following the expiry of the said period of twenty-one days referred to in Article 35, the vendor shall be at liberty, subject nevertheless to the provisions of regulation 27, to transfer to any persons and at any price any share not allocated and sold by the company as a result of a notice of sale by application of the procedure herein above set forth. It is to be understood that in case the vendor has given notice of cancellation in accordance with the provisions of Reg. 34 above he shall not be entitled to proceed with the sale of shares unless the entire procedure is followed from the beginning.

PLEDGE

39. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles, no share shall be given by a member as a pledge or as security for a loan, debt or obligation without the sanction of the directors, and the directors shall decline to register or recognize any such pledge or security given in contravention of this Article, which pledge or security shall not be valid towards the company, save as otherwise provided by law.

TRANSISSION OF SHARES

40. In case of the death of a member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
41. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.

42. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
43. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other benefits to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it, to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings or resolutions in writing by the members of the company:

Provided always that the directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days the directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

44. If a member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter and during such time as any part of the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or installment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
45. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.
46. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time, thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.
47. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.
48. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
49. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share of any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favor of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
50. The provisions of these Regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

51. The Company may by ordinary resolution convert any paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
52. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might, before conversion, have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit: and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but such minimum amount shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
53. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
54. Such of the Regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

55. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.
56. The Company may by ordinary resolution:
 - (a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (b) subdivide its existing shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association, subject nevertheless, to the provisions of section 60(1)(d) of the Law;
 - (c) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
57. The company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorization and consent required by law.

GENERAL MEETINGS

58. The company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the company holds its first annual general meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.
59. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
60. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default, may be convened by such requisitioners, as provided by section 126 of the Law. If at any time there are not within Cyprus sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

61. An annual general meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least, and a meeting of the company other than an annual general meeting or a meeting for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by fourteen days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given in the manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company:

Provided that a meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this regulation, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed-

- (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat, and
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.
62. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

63. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also all that is transacted at an annual general meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the directors and auditors, the election of directors in the place of those retiring, if any, and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.
64. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, two members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum. It is understood that in the case that the Company has only one shareholder his presence in private or through a representative shall be a quorum.
65. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
66. All notices and other communications relating to a general meeting, which each member is entitled to receive, shall also be given to the auditors of the company.
67. The chairman, if any, of the board of directors, shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company, or if there is no such chairman, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the directors present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
68. If at any meeting no director is willing to act as chairman or if no director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
69. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

70. At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded-
- (a) by the chairman or
 - (b) by at least one member present in person or by proxy.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or rejected and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without the need for evidence about the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

71. Except as provided in Article 73, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
72. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

73. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares and subject also to any special provisions contained in these Articles, on a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
