(2) Any amendment so made in a company's articles shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be as valid as if originally contained in the articles, and, subject to the provisions of this Act and the company's constitution, be subject to amendment by special resolution.

(3) A member of a company is not bound by any amendment to its articles after the date on which he became a member, if and so far as the amendment—

- (a) would require him to take or subscribe for more shares than the number held by him at the date on which the amendment is made; or
- (b) would in any way increase his liability as at that date to contribute to the company's share capital or otherwise to pay money to the company.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply in a case where the member agrees in writing, either before or after the amendment is made, to be bound by the amendment.

(5) In this section "amend" includes alteration, addition and repeal and "amendment" shall be construed accordingly.

Registrar to be sent copy of amended articles.

26.(1) Where a company amends its articles it must send to the Registrar a copy of the articles as amended not later than 30 days after the amendment takes effect.

(2) This section does not require a company to set out in its articles any provisions of model articles that—

- (a) are applied by the articles; or
- (b) apply by virtue of section 24.

(3) If a company fails to comply with this section an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company; and

27.(1) No company shall be registered by a name—

- (a) which includes, otherwise than at the end of the name, the word “limited”; or
- (b) which includes, otherwise than at the end of the name, an abbreviation of the word “limited”; or
- (c) which is the same as the name appearing in the Registrar’s index of company names, except where the company in existence is in the course of being dissolved and signifies its consent in such manner as the Registrar requires; or
- (d) the use of which by the company would in the opinion of the Registrar constitute a criminal offence; or
- (e) which in the opinion of the Registrar is offensive; or
- (f) which contains the words “Chamber of Commerce”, unless the company is a company which is to be registered under a licence granted in pursuance of section 28 without the addition of the word “Limited” to its name.

(2) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1)(c) whether one name is the same as another, there shall be disregarded—

(5) The Minister may by regulations specify words or expressions for the registration of which as or as part of a company's corporate name his approval is required under subsection (3) of this section.

(6) Regulations made under subsection (5) may contain such transitional provisions and savings as the Minister thinks appropriate and may make different provisions for different cases or classes of case.

Power to dispense with “Limited” in name of charitable and other companies.

28.(1) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister that an association about to be formed as a limited company is to be formed for promoting commerce, art, science, religion, charity or any other useful object, and intends to apply its profits (if any) or other income in promoting its objects, and to prohibit the payment of any dividend to its members, the Minister may by licence direct that the association may be registered as a company with limited liability, without the addition of the word “Limited” to its name, and the association may be registered accordingly.

(2) A licence by the Minister under this section may be granted on such conditions and subject to such regulations as the Minister thinks fit, and those conditions and regulations shall be binding on the association, and shall, if the Minister so directs, be inserted in the memorandum and articles, or in one of those documents.

(3) The association shall on registration enjoy all the privileges of limited companies, and be subject to all their obligations, except those of using the word “Limited” as any part of its name, and of publishing its name, and of sending lists of members to the Registrar.

(4) A licence under this section may at any time be revoked by the Minister, and upon revocation the Registrar shall enter the word “Limited” at the end of the name of the association upon the register, and the association shall cease to enjoy the exemptions and privileges granted by this section: but, before a licence is so revoked, the Minister shall give to the association notice in writing of his intention, and shall afford the association an opportunity of being heard in opposition to the revocation.

(5) Where the name of the association contains the words “Chamber of Commerce”, the notice to be given shall include a statement of the effect of the provisions of section 29(5).

(3) Where a change of name by special resolution is conditional on the occurrence of an event, the notice given to the Registrar must specify that the change is conditional and state whether the event has occurred; and if the notice states that the event has not occurred—

- (a) the Registrar is not required to register the change of name and issue a new certificate of incorporation until further notice;
- (b) when the event occurs, the company must give notice of that to the Registrar; and
- (c) the Registrar may rely on the company’s statement that the event has occurred and proceed with the registration.

(4) Where a company's change of name has been made by other means provided for by its articles—

- (a) the company must give notice to the Registrar;
- (b) the notice must be accompanied by a statement that the change of name has been made by means provided for by the company's articles; and
- (c) the Registrar may rely on the company's statement and proceed with the registration.

(5) Where a licence granted in pursuance of section 28 to a company the name of which contains the words "Chamber of Commerce" is revoked, the company shall, within a period of 6 weeks from the date of the revocation or such longer period as the Minister may think fit to allow, change its name to a name which does not contain those words; and a company which makes default in complying with the requirements of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 2 on the standard scale for every day during which the default continues.

(6) Where a company changes its name, the Registrar shall enter the new name on the register in place of the former name, and shall issue a certificate of incorporation altered to meet the circumstances of the case.

(7) A change of a company's name has effect from the date on which the new certificate of incorporation with the new name is issued; but the change of name shall not affect any rights or obligations of the company, or render defective any legal proceedings by or against the company, and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced against it by its former name may be continued or commenced against it by its new name.

Power to require company to change name – general.

30.(1) Where a company has been registered by a name which—

- (b) is the same as or, in the opinion of the Registrar, too like a name which should have appeared in that index at that time; or
- (c) is in the opinion of the Registrar undesirable, the Registrar may within 12 months of the time of registration, in writing, direct the company to change its name within such period as he may specify.

(2) Section 27(2) applies in determining under subsection (1) whether the name is the same as or too like another.

(3) If it appears to the Registrar that—

- (a) misleading information has been given for the purpose of a company's registration with a particular name; or

Power to require company to change misleading name.

31.(1) If in the Registrar's opinion the name by which a company is registered gives so misleading an indication of the nature of its activities as to be likely to cause harm to the public he may direct it to change its name.

(2) The direction must, if not duly made the subject of an application to the court under the following subsection, be complied with within a period of 6 weeks from the date of the direction or such longer period as the Registrar may see fit to allow.

(3) The company may within a period of 3 weeks from the date of the direction, apply to the court to set it aside; and the court may set the direction aside or confirm it and, if it confirms the direction, shall specify the period within which it must be complied with.

(3) Such a debt is of the nature of a specialty debt.

Provision as to memorandum and articles of companies limited by guarantee.

34. For the purpose of the provisions of this Act relating to the memorandum of a company limited by guarantee and of this section, every provision in the memorandum or articles, or in any resolution, of a company limited by guarantee, purporting to divide the undertaking of the company into shares or interests shall be treated as a provision for a share capital, notwithstanding that the nominal amount or number of the shares or interests is not specified by that provision.

RE-REGISTRATION AS A MEANS OF ALTERING A COMPANY'S STATUS

Introductory

Alteration of status by re-registration.

37. A company may by re-registration under this Part alter its status—
- (a) from a private company to a public company;
 - (b) from a public company to a private company;
 - (c) from a private limited company to an unlimited company;
 - (d) from an unlimited private company to a limited company;
 - (e) from a public company to an unlimited private company;
 - (f) from a company limited by shares to a company limited by guarantee not having a share capital;
 - (g) from a company limited by shares to a company limited by guarantee having a share capital;
 - (h) from a company limited by guarantee not having a share capital to a company limited by shares; and
 - (i) from a company limited by guarantee having a share capital to a company limited by shares.

Private company becoming public

Re-registration of private company as public.

- 38.(1) A private company (whether limited or unlimited) may be re-registered as a public company limited by shares if—
- (a) a special resolution that it should be so re-registered is passed;
 - (b) the conditions specified below are met; and
 - (c) an application for re-registration is delivered to the Registrar in accordance with section 42, together with—
 - (i) the other documents required by that section, and

(ii) a statement of compliance.

(2) The conditions are—

- (a) that the company has a share capital;
- (b) that the requirements of section 39 are met as regards its share capital;
- (c) that the requirements of section 40 are met as regards its net assets;
- (d) if section 41 applies (recent allotment of shares for non-cash consideration), that the requirements of that section are met; and
- (e) that the company has not previously been re-registered as unlimited.

(3) The company must make such changes—

- (a) in its name; and
- (b) in its articles, as are necessary in connection with its becoming a public company.

(4) If the company is unlimited it must also make such changes in its articles as are necessary in connection with its becoming a company limited by shares.

Requirements as to share capital.

39.(1) The following requirements must be met at the time the special resolution is passed that the company should be re-registered as a public company—

- (a) the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital must be not less than the authorised minimum;
- (b) each of the company's allotted shares must be paid up at least as to one quarter of the nominal value of that share and the whole of any premium on it;
- (c) if any shares in the company or any premium on them have been fully or partly paid up by an undertaking given by any person that he or another should do work or perform services

(whether for the company or any other person), the undertaking must have been performed or otherwise discharged;

- (d) if shares have been allotted as fully or partly paid up as to their nominal value or, if shares have been allotted as fully or partly paid up as to their nominal value or any premium on them otherwise than in cash, and the consideration for the allotment consists of or includes an undertaking to the company (other than one to which paragraph (c) applies), then either—
 - (i) the undertaking must have been performed or otherwise discharged, or
 - (ii) there must be a contract between the company and some person pursuant to which the undertaking is to be performed within 5 years from the time the special resolution is passed.

(2) For the purpose of determining whether the requirements in subsection (1)(b),(c) and (d) are met, shares may be disregarded if they were allotted in pursuance of an employees' share scheme by reason of which the company would, but for this subsection, be precluded under subsection (1)(b) (but not otherwise) from being re-registered as a public company; and shares disregarded under this subsection shall be treated as not forming part of the allotted share capital for the purposes of subsection (1)(a).

(3) A company must not be re-registered as a public company if it appears to the Registrar that—

- (a) the company has resolved to reduce its share capital;
- (b) the reduction—
 - (i) is made in connection with a redenomination of share capital,
 - (ii) is supported by a solvency statement, as defined in subsection (4), or
 - (iii) has been confirmed by an order of the court; and
- (c) the effect of the reduction is, or will be, that the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital is below the authorised minimum.

(4) A solvency statement is a statement that each of the directors—

- (a) has formed the opinion, as regards the company's situation at the date of the statement, that there is no ground on which the company could be found to be unable to pay (or otherwise discharge) its debts; and
- (b) has also formed the opinion—
 - (i) if it is intended to commence the winding up of the company within twelve months of that date, that the company will be able to pay (or otherwise discharge) its debts in full within twelve months of the commencement of the winding up, or
 - (ii) in any other case, that the company will be able to pay (or otherwise discharge) its debts as they fall due during the year immediately following that date, and, in forming those opinions, the directors must take into account all of the company's liabilities (including any contingent or prospective liabilities).

- (5) The solvency statement must be in the prescribed form and must state—
 - (a) the date on which it is made; and
 - (b) the name of each director of the company, and if the directors make a solvency statement without having reasonable grounds for the opinions expressed in it, and the statement is delivered to the Registrar, every director who is in default commits an offence.

- (6) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (5) is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine at level 5 on the standard scale (or both).

Requirements as to net assets.

- 40.(1) A company applying to re-register as a public company must obtain—
 - (a) a balance sheet prepared as at a date not more than 7 months before the date on which the application is delivered to the Registrar;

- (b) an unqualified report by the company's auditor on that balance sheet; and
- (c) a written statement by the company's auditor that in his opinion at the balance sheet date the amount of the company's net assets was not less than the aggregate of its called-up share capital and undistributable reserves.

(2) Between the balance sheet date and the date on which the application for re-registration is delivered to the Registrar, there must be no change in the company's financial position that results in the amount of its net assets becoming less than the aggregate of its called-up share capital and undistributable reserves.

(3) In subsection (1)(b) an "unqualified report" means—

- (a) if the balance sheet was prepared for a financial year of the company, a report stating without material qualification the auditor's opinion that the balance sheet has been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of this Act;
- (b) if the balance sheet was not prepared for a financial year of the company, a balance sheet has been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act which would have applied if it had been prepared for a financial year of the company.

(4) For the purposes of an auditor's report on a balance sheet that was not prepared for a financial year of the company, the provisions of this Act apply with such modifications as are necessary by reason of that fact.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), a qualification is material unless the auditor for the purpose of determining (by reference to the company's balance sheet) whether at the balance sheet date the amount of the company's net assets was not less than the aggregate of its called-up share capital and undistributable reserves.

(6) In this Chapter—

"net assets" means the aggregate of the company's assets less the aggregate of its liabilities;

"undistributable reserves" of a company means—

- (a) its share premium account;
- (b) its capital redemption reserve;

- (c) the amount by which its accumulated, unrealised profits (so far as not previously utilised by capitalisation) exceed its accumulated, unrealised losses (so far as not previously written off in a reduction or reorganisation of capital); and
- (d) any other reserve that the company is prohibited from distributing by any enactment (other than contained in this Part) or by its articles.

Recent allotment of shares for non-cash consideration.

41.(1) This section applies where–

- (a) shares are allotted by the company in the period between the date as at which the balance sheet required by section 40 is prepared and the passing of the resolution that the company should re-register as a public company; and
- (b) the shares are allotted as fully or partly paid up as to their nominal value or any premium on them otherwise than in cash.

(2) The Registrar shall not entertain an application by the company for re-registration as a public company unless–

- (a) the requirements of section 91 (valuation of non-cash consideration) have been complied with; or
- (b) the allotment is in connection with–
 - (i) a share exchange, or
 - (ii) a proposed merger with another company.

(3) An allotment is in connection with a share exchange if–

- (a) the shares are allotted in connection with an arrangement under which the whole or part of the consideration for the shares allotted is provided by–
 - (i) the transfer to the company allotting the shares of shares (or shares of a particular class) in another company, or
 - (ii) the cancellation of shares (or shares of a particular class) in another company; and
- (b) the allotment is open to all the holders of the shares of the other company in question (or, where the arrangement applies only to shares of a particular class, to all the holders of the company's shares of that class) to take part in the arrangement in connection with which the shares are allotted.

(4) In determining whether a person is a holder of shares for the purposes of subsection (3), there shall be disregarded—

- (a) shares held by, or by a nominee of, the company allotting the shares;
- (b) shares held by, or by a nominee of—
 - (i) the holding company of the company allotting the shares,
 - (ii) a subsidiary of the company allotting the shares, or
 - (iii) a subsidiary of the holding company of the company allotting the shares.

(5) It is immaterial, for the purposes of deciding whether an allotment is in connection with a share exchange, whether or not the arrangement in connection with which the shares are allotted involves the issue to the company allotting the shares of shares (or shares of a particular class) in the other company.

(6) There is a proposed merger with another company if one of the companies concerned proposes to acquire all the assets and liabilities of the other in exchange for the issue of its shares or other securities to shareholders of the other (whether or not accompanied by a cash payment); and for this purpose “another company” includes any corporate body.

(7) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the consideration for an allotment does not include any amount standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or of its profit and loss account, that has been applied in paying up (to any extent) any of the shares allotted or any premium on those shares; and
- (b) “arrangement” means any agreement, scheme or arrangement, including an arrangement sanctioned in accordance with—
 - (i) Part VIII (arrangements and reconstructions), or
 - (ii) section 384.

Application and accompanying documents.

42.(1) An application for re-registration as a public company must contain—

- (a) a statement of the company's proposed name on re-registration; and
 - (b) a statement of the company's proposed secretary.
- (2) The application must be accompanied by–
- (a) a copy of the special resolution that the company should re-register as a public company (unless a copy has already been forwarded to the Registrar under section 206);
 - (b) a copy of the company's articles as proposed to be amended;
 - (c) a copy of the company's prospectus or the statement in lieu of prospectus;
 - (d) a copy of the balance sheet and other documents referred to in section 40(1);
 - (e) if section 41 applies, a copy of the valuation report (if any) under subsection (2)(a) of that section; and
 - (f) where the company carries on in or from Gibraltar a business which is licensed or authorised under the Financial Services (Investment and Fiduciary Services) Act 1991, the Financial Services (Banking) Act 1992 or the Financial Services (Markets in Financial Instruments) Act 2006, evidence of the consent of the competent authority under the relevant legislation or requirement to the company re-registering as a public company.

(3) The statement of compliance required to be delivered together with the application is a statement that the requirements of this Part as to re-registration as a public company have been complied with.

(4) The Registrar may accept the statement of compliance as sufficient evidence that the company is entitled to be re-registered as a public company.

Statement of proposed secretary.

43.(1) The statement of the company's proposed secretary must contain the required particulars of the person who is or the persons who are to be the secretary or joint secretaries of the company.

(2) The required particulars are the particulars that will be required to be stated in the company's register of secretaries (as described in section 223).

(3) The statement must also contain a consent by the person named as secretary, or each of the persons named as joint secretaries, to act in the relevant capacity.

(4) If all the partners in a firm are to be joint secretaries, consent may be given by one partner on behalf of all of them.

Issue of certificate of incorporation on re-registration.

44.(1) If on an application for re-registration as a public company the Registrar is satisfied that the company is entitled to be so re-registered, the company shall be re-registered accordingly.

(2) The Registrar must issue a certificate of incorporation altered to meet the circumstances of the case.

(3) The certificate must state that it is issued on re-registration and the date on which it is issued.

(4) On the issue of the certificate—

- (a) the company by virtue of the issue of the certificate becomes a public company;
- (b) the changes in the company's name and articles take effect; and
- (c) where the application contained a statement under section 43, the person or persons named in the statement as secretary or joint secretary of the company are deemed to have been appointed to that office.

(5) The certificate is conclusive evidence that the requirements of this Act as to re-registration have been complied with.

Public company becoming private

Re-registration of public company as private limited company.

45.(1) A public company may be re-registered as a private limited company if—

- (a) a special resolution that it should be so re-registered is passed;

- (b) the conditions specified below are met; and
 - (c) an application for re-registration is delivered to the Registrar in accordance with section 48, together with—
 - (i) the other documents required by that section, and
 - (ii) a statement of compliance.
- (2) The conditions are that—
- (a) where no application under section 46 for cancellation of the resolution has been made—
 - (i) having regard to the number of members who consented to or voted in favour of the resolution, no such application may be made, or
 - (ii) the period within which such an application could be made has expired; or
 - (b) where such an application has been made—
 - (i) the application has been withdrawn, or
 - (ii) an order has been made confirming the resolution and a copy of that order has been delivered to the Registrar.
- (3) The company must make such changes in its name and in its articles, as are necessary in connection with its becoming a private company limited by shares or, as the case may be, by guarantee.

Application to court to cancel resolution.

46.(1) Where a special resolution by a public company to be re-registered as a private limited company has been passed, an application to the court for the cancellation of the resolution may be made—

- (a) by the holders of not less in the aggregate than 5% in nominal value of the company's issued share capital or any class of the company's issued share capital;
- (b) if the company is not limited by shares, by not less than 5% of its members; or
- (c) by not less than 50 of the company's members, but not by a person who has consented to or voted in favour of the resolution.

(2) The application must be made within 28 days after the passing of the resolution and may be made on behalf of the persons entitled to make it by such one or more of their number as they may appoint for the purpose.

(3) On the hearing of the application the court shall make an order either cancelling or confirming the resolution.

(4) The court may—

- (a) make that order on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit;

- (c) the company shall be entitled to the benefit of that action; and
- (d) the company shall be liable in respect of that action; and
- (e) any failure to take any steps necessary to give effect to that action shall be a failure by the company.

(2) Except—

- (a) where a company has ratified that action, as provided for in subsection (1); or
- (b) there is an agreement to the contrary, an action carried out in the name of a company and purportedly by or on behalf of that company prior to the date of incorporation mentioned in the certificate of incorporation of that company shall be the action of the person or persons by whom it was carried out and that person or those persons shall be jointly and severally liable in respect of that action and shall be entitled to the benefit of that action.

Power of directors to bind the company.

70.(1) In favour of a person dealing with a company in good faith, the power of the board of directors to bind the company, or authorise others to do so, shall be deemed to be free of any limitations under the company's constitution.

(2) For this purpose—

- (a) a person “deals with” a company if he is a party to any transaction or other act to which the company is a party;
- (b) a person shall not be regarded as acting in bad faith by reason only of his knowing that an act is beyond the powers of the directors under the company's constitution; and
- (c) a person shall be presumed to have acted in good faith unless the contrary is proved.

(3) The reference above to limitations on the directors' powers under the company's constitution includes limitations deriving—

- (a) from the resolution of the company in general meeting or a meeting of any class of shareholders; or
- (b) from any agreement between the members of the company or any class of shareholders.

(4) Subsection (1) does not affect any right of a member of the company to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which is beyond the powers of the directors: except that no such proceedings shall lie in respect of any act to be done in fulfilment of a legal obligation arising from a previous act of the company.

(5) Subsection (1) does not affect any liability incurred by the directors, or any other person, by reason of the directors' exceeding of their powers.

No duty to enquire as to capacity of company or authority of directors.

71. A party to a transaction with a company is not bound to enquire as to whether the transaction is permitted by the company's constitution or as to any limitation on the powers of the board of directors to bind the company or to authorise others to do so.

(4) A document signed in accordance with subsection (2) and expressed, in whatever words, to be executed by the company has the same effect as if executed under the common seal of the company.

(5) In favour of a purchaser a document is deemed to have been duly executed by a company if it purports to be signed in accordance with subsection (2); and for this purpose, a “purchaser” means a purchaser in good faith for valuable consideration and includes a lessee, mortgagee or other person who for valuable consideration acquires an interest in property.

(6) Where a document is to be signed by a person on behalf of more than one company, it is not duly signed by that person for the purposes of this section unless he signs it separately in each capacity.

(7) References in this section to a document being (or purporting to be) signed by a director or secretary are to be read, in a case where that office is held by a firm, as references to its being (or purporting to be) signed by an individual authorised by the firm to sign on its behalf.

(8) This section applies to a document that is (or purports to be) executed by a company in the name of or on behalf of another person, whether or not that person is also a company.

PART IV

PROSPECTUSES, SHARE CAPITAL AND DEBENTURES

Prospectus

Dating and registration of prospectus.

77.(1) A prospectus issued by or on behalf of a company or in relation to an intended company shall be dated, and that date shall, unless the contrary is proved, be taken as the date of publication of the prospectus.

(2) A copy of every such prospectus, signed by every person who is named therein as a director or proposed director of the company, or by his agent authorised in writing, shall be delivered to the Registrar for registration on or before the date of its publication, and no such prospectus shall be issued until a copy thereof has been so delivered for registration.

(3) The Registrar shall not register any prospectus unless it is dated, and the copy thereof signed, in manner required by this section.

(4) Every prospectus shall state on the face of it that a copy has been delivered for registration as required by this section.

(5) If a prospectus is issued without a copy thereof being so delivered, the company and every person who is knowingly a party to the issue of the prospectus, are guilty of offences and are each liable on summary conviction to a fine of £5 for every day from the date of the issue of the prospectus until a copy thereof is so delivered.

(6) The provisions of this section and sections 78 to 82 are in addition to any requirements arising under the Prospectus Act 2005 and in this section and sections 78 to 82, “prospectus” has the same meaning as in that Act.

Exemptions for collective investment schemes.

78. Sections 77 and 79 to 85 do not apply to a company that is licensed, authorised or otherwise regulated under the Financial Services (Collective Investment Schemes) Act 2011.

Specific requirements as to particulars in prospectus.

79.(1) Every prospectus issued by or on behalf of a company, or by or on behalf of any person who is or has been engaged or interested in the formation of the company, must state the matters specified in Part I of Schedule 2 and set out the reports specified in Part II of that Schedule, and Parts I and II shall have effect subject to the provisions contained in Part III of that Schedule.

(2) A condition requiring or binding an applicant for shares in or debentures of a company to waive compliance with any requirement of this section, or purporting to affect him with notice of any contract, or matter not specifically referred to in the prospectus, shall be void.

(3) It shall not be lawful to issue any form of application for shares in or debentures of a company unless the form is issued with a prospectus which complies with the requirements of this section; except that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown that the form of application was issued either—

- (a) in connection with a bona fide invitation to a person to enter into an underwriting agreement with respect to the shares or debentures; or
- (b) in relation to shares or debentures which were not offered to the public.

(4) A person who acts in contravention of the provisions of subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 5 on the standard scale.

(5) In the event of non-compliance with or contravention of any of the requirements of this section, a director or other person responsible for the prospectus shall not incur any liability by reason of the non-compliance or contravention, if—

- (a) as regards any matter not disclosed, he proves that he was not aware of it; or
- (b) he proves that the non-compliance or contravention arose from an honest mistake of fact on his part; or
- (c) the non-compliance or contravention was in respect of matters which in the opinion of the court dealing with the case were immaterial or was otherwise such as ought, in the opinion of that court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, reasonably to be excused:

except that, in the event of failure to include in a prospectus a statement with respect to the matters specified in paragraph 15 of Part I of Schedule 2, no director or other person shall incur any liability in respect of the failure unless it be proved that he had knowledge of the matters not disclosed.

(6) This section shall not apply to the issue to existing members or debenture holders of a company of a prospectus or form of application relating to shares in or debentures of the company, whether an applicant for shares or debentures will or will not have the right to renounce in favour of other persons, but subject to that, this section shall apply to a prospectus or a form of application whether issued on or with reference to the formation of a company or subsequently.

(7) Nothing in this section shall limit or diminish any liability which any person may incur under the general law or this Act apart from this section.

Restriction on alteration of terms mentioned in prospectus or statement.

80.(1) A company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital shall not prior to the statutory meeting vary the terms of a contract referred to in the prospectus or statement in lieu of prospectus, except subject to the approval of the statutory meeting.

(2) This section shall not apply to a private company.

Liability for statements in prospectus.

81.(1) Where a prospectus invites persons to subscribe for shares in or debentures of a company—

- (a) every person who is a director of the company at the time of the issue of the prospectus; and
- (b) every person who has authorised himself to be named and is named in the prospectus as a director or as having agreed to become a director either immediately or after an interval of time; and
- (c) every person being a promoter of the company; and
- (d) every person who has authorised the issue of the prospectus, shall be liable to pay compensation to all persons who subscribe for any shares or debentures on the faith of the prospectus for the loss or damage they may have sustained by reason of any untrue statement therein, or in any report or memorandum appearing on the face thereof, or by reference incorporated therein or issued therewith, unless it is proved—

- (i) that having consented to become a director of the company he withdrew his consent before the issue of the prospectus, and that it was issued without his authority or consent, or
- (ii) that the prospectus was issued without his knowledge or consent, and that on becoming aware of its issue he forthwith gave reasonable public notice that it was issued without his knowledge or consent, or
- (iii) that after the issue of the prospectus and before allotment thereunder, he, on becoming aware of any untrue statement therein, withdrew his consent thereto, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal, and of the reason therefor, or
- (iv) that one of the propositions in subsection (2) applies.

(2) The propositions referred to in subsection (1)(iv) are that it is proved either—

- (a) as regards every untrue statement not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert or of a public official document or statement, the person concerned had reasonable grounds to believe, and did up to the time of the allotment of the shares or debentures, as the case may be, believe, that the statement was true; or
- (b) as regards every untrue statement purporting to be a statement by an expert or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a report or valuation of an expert, it fairly represented the statement, or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation; or
- (c) as regards every untrue statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a public official document, it was a correct and fair representation of the statement or copy of or extract from the document—but, nevertheless, a person shall be liable to pay compensation as mentioned in subsection (1) if it is proved that he had no reasonable ground to believe that the person making any such statement, report or valuation as is mentioned in this subsection was competent to make it.

(3) Where the prospectus contains the name of a person as a director of the company, or as having agreed to become a director thereof, and he has not consented to become a director, or has withdrawn his consent before the issue of the prospectus, and has not authorised or consented to its issue, the directors of the company, except any without whose knowledge or consent the prospectus was issued, and any other person who authorised the issue thereof, shall be liable to indemnify the person named against all damages, costs and expenses to which he may be made liable by reason of his name having been inserted in the prospectus, or in defending himself against any action or legal proceedings brought against him in respect thereof.

(4) Every person who, by reason of his being a director or named as a director or as having agreed to become a director, or of his having authorised the issue of the prospectus, becomes liable to make any payment under this section may recover contribution, as in cases of contract, from any other person who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment, unless the person who has become so liable was, and that other person was not, guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation.

(5) For the purposes of this section,—

“promoter” means a promoter who was a party to the preparation of the prospectus, or of the portion thereof containing the untrue statement, but does not include any person by reason of his acting in a professional capacity for persons engaged in procuring the formation of the company; and “expert” includes engineer, valuer, accountant and any other person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him.

Document containing offer of shares or debentures for sale to be deemed prospectus.

82.(1) Where a company allots or agrees to allot any shares in or debentures of the company with a view to all or any of those shares or debentures being offered for sale to the public, any document by which the offer for sale to the public is made shall for all purposes be deemed to be a prospectus issued by the company, and all enactments and rules of law as to the contents of prospectuses and to liability in respect of statements in and omissions from prospectuses, or otherwise relating to prospectuses, shall apply and have effect accordingly, as if—

- (a) the shares or debentures had been offered to the public for subscription; and
- (b) persons accepting the offer in respect of any shares or debentures were subscribers for those shares or debentures, but without prejudice to the liability (if any) of the persons by whom the offer is made, in respect of misstatements contained in the document or otherwise in respect thereof.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be evidence that an allotment of, or an agreement to allot, shares or debentures was made with a view to the shares or debentures being offered for sale to the public if it is shown—

- (a) that an offer of the shares or debentures or of any of them for sale to the public was made within 6 months after the allotment or agreement to allot; or
- (b) that at the date when the offer was made the whole consideration to be received by the company in respect of the shares or debentures had not been so received.

(3) Section 77 as applied by this section shall have effect as though the persons making the offer were persons named in a prospectus as directors of a company, and section 79 as applied by this section shall have effect as if it required a prospectus to state in addition to the matters required by that section to be stated in a prospectus—

- (a) the net amount of the consideration received or to be received by the company in respect of the shares or debentures to which the offer relates; and
- (b) the place and time at which the contract under which the shares or debentures have been or are to be allotted may be inspected.

(4) Where a person making an offer to which this section relates is a company or a firm, it shall be sufficient if the document referred to above is signed on behalf of the company or firm by two directors of the company or not less than half of the partners, as the case may be, and any such director or partner may sign by his agent authorised in writing.

Allotment

Prohibition of allotment unless minimum subscription received.

83.(1) No allotment shall be made of any share capital of a company offered to the public for subscription unless the amount stated in the prospectus as the minimum amount which, in the opinion of the directors, must be raised by the issue of share capital in order to provide for the matters specified in paragraph 5 of Part I of Schedule 2 has been subscribed, and the sum payable on application for the amount so stated has been paid to and received by the company.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a sum shall be deemed to have been paid to and received by the company if a cheque for that sum has been received in good faith by the company and the directors of the company have no reason for suspecting that the cheque will not be paid.

(3) The amount so stated in the prospectus shall be reckoned exclusively of any amount payable otherwise than in cash and is in this Act referred to as “the minimum subscription.”

(4) The amount payable on application on each share shall not be less than 5 per cent of the nominal amount of the share.

(5) If the above conditions have not been complied with at the expiry of 40 days after the first issue of the prospectus, all money received from applicants for shares shall be forthwith repaid to them without interest, and, if any such money is not so repaid within 48 days after the issue of the prospectus, the directors of the company shall be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum from the expiration of the 48th day: except that a director shall not be liable if he proves that the default in the repayment of the money was not due to any misconduct or negligence on his part.

(6) Any condition requiring or binding any applicant for shares to waive compliance with any requirement of this section shall be void.

(7) This section, except subsection (4), shall not apply to any allotment of shares subsequent to the first allotment of shares offered to the public for subscription.

Prohibition of allotment in certain cases unless statement in lieu of prospectus delivered to Registrar.

84.(1) A company having a share capital which does not issue a prospectus on or with reference to its formation, or which has issued such a prospectus but has not proceeded to allot any of the shares offered to the public for subscription, shall not allot any of its shares or debentures unless at least 3 days before the first allotment of either shares or debentures there has been delivered to the Registrar for registration a statement in lieu of prospectus, signed by every person who is named therein as a director or a proposed director of the company or by his agent authorised in writing, in the form and containing the particulars set out in Schedule 3.

(2) This section shall not apply to a private company.

(3) If a company acts in contravention of this section, the company and every director of the company who knowingly authorises or permits the contravention shall be guilty of offences and are each liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 3 on the standard scale.

Effect of irregular allotment.

85.(1) An allotment made by a company to an applicant in contravention of the provisions of sections 83 and 84, shall be voidable at the instance of the applicant within 1 month after the holding of the statutory meeting of the company and not later, or, in any case where the company is not required to hold a statutory meeting, or where the allotment is made after the holding of the statutory meeting, within 1 month after the date of the allotment, and not later, and shall be so voidable notwithstanding that the company is in course of being wound up.

(2) A director of a company who knowingly contravenes, or permits or authorises the contravention of, any of the provisions of those sections with respect to allotment, is liable to compensate the company and the allottee respectively for any loss, damages or costs which the company or the allottee may have sustained or incurred thereby: but no proceedings to recover any such loss, damages or costs shall be commenced after the expiration of 2 years from the date of the allotment.

Return as to allotments.

86.(1) Except where the company has given a notification to the Registrar pursuant to section 18 that it is a Collective Investment Scheme, whenever a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital makes any allotment of its shares, the company shall within 30 days thereafter deliver to the Registrar for registration—

- (a) a return of the allotments, stating the number and nominal amount of the shares comprised in the allotment, the names, addresses and descriptions of the allottees, and the amount (if any) paid or due and payable on each share; and
- (b) in the case of shares allotted as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash, a contract in writing constituting the title of the allottee to the allotment together with any contract of sale, or for services or other consideration in respect of which that allotment was made, such contracts being duly stamped, and a return stating the number and nominal amount of shares so allotted, the extent to which they are to be treated as paid up, and the consideration for which they have been allotted.

(2) Where such a contract as above mentioned is not reduced to writing, the company shall within 30 days after the allotment deliver to the Registrar for registration the prescribed particulars of the contract.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), if default is made in complying with this section, every director, manager or other officer of the company, who is knowingly a party to the default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 2 on the standard scale for every day during which the default continues

(4) In case of default in delivering to the Registrar within 1 month after the allotment any document required to be delivered by this section, the company, or any person liable for the default, may apply to the Registrar for leave to file the return of allotment out of time, and the Registrar, if satisfied that the omission to deliver the document was accidental or due to inadvertence or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may make an order extending the time for the delivery of the document for such period as the court may think proper.

(5) An application made under subsection (4) shall be accompanied by—

- (a) an affidavit of—
 - (i) the applicant's interest in the matter,
 - (ii) a statement of the facts on which the application is based, and
 - (iii) the relief sought; and
- (b) the fee prescribed in Schedule 24.

(6) The Registrar may, in his discretion, require that a person making an application under subsection (4) give notice of that application (including the facts on which the application is based and the relief sought) to such other person as the Registrar may specify, being a person who appears to the Registrar to be concerned or to have an interest and may specify the time for receipt by him of any written objection from that other person.

(7) On receipt within the time specified by virtue of subsection (6) of any written objection to the granting by the Registrar of an extension of time within which the return of allotment may be filed, the Registrar shall forthwith notify the applicant of the receipt of the objection, the terms of the objection and of the identity of the objector.

Provisions supplementary to section 86.

87.(1) Where an application for an extension of time for the filing of a return of allotment has been made under section 86 (4), the Registrar may, in his discretion, refuse to consider the application and require that the person by whom the application was made apply to the Supreme Court for an order for such an extension of time.

(2) On receipt of an application under section 86, the Registrar, if satisfied that there are good grounds for extending the time within which the return of allotment may be made, may direct that the time be extended to the extent specified in his direction.

(3) A direction given under section 86 or this section may be made subject to conditions and the Registrar may include such further directions and such provisions as seem just and equitable in the circumstances.

(4) The court may, on application under subsection (1), refuse the application or order the period of time for the filing of the return of allotment be extended by the period specified by the court.

(5) In any proceedings under this section, the court may determine any question which may be necessary or expedient to decide in connection with the extension of the time within which the return of allotment may be filed.

(6) The Registrar shall be entitled to appear and be heard on any application to the court under this section and shall appear if so directed by the court.

(7) Any order made by the court under this section shall direct that notice of the order shall be served on the Registrar in the prescribed manner and the Registrar shall, on receipt of the notice, act accordingly.

Payment for allotted shares.

88.(1) Subject to the following provisions, shares allotted by any company and any premium payable on them may be paid up in money or money's worth (including goodwill and know-how).

(2) A public company may not at any time accept, in payment up of its shares or any premium on them, an undertaking given by any person that he or another should do work or perform services for the company or any other person.

(3) Where a public company accepts such an undertaking in payment up of its shares or any premium payable on them, the holder of the shares when they or the premium are treated as paid up, in whole or in part, by the undertaking is liable to pay the company in respect of those shares an amount equal to their nominal value, together with the whole of any premium or, if the case so requires, such proportion of that amount as is treated as paid up by the undertaking, with interest at the appropriate rate.

(4) This section does not prevent a company from allotting bonus shares to its members or from paying up, with sums available for the purpose, any amount for the time being unpaid on any of its shares (whether on their nominal value or any premium).

(5) The reference in subsection (3) to the holder of shares includes any person who has an unconditional right to be included in the company's register of members in respect of those shares or to have an instrument of transfer of them executed in his favour.

Shares to be allotted as at least one quarter paid up.

89.(1) A public company may not allot a share except as paid up at least as to one-quarter of its nominal value and the whole of any premium on it.

(2) If a company allots a share in contravention of subsection (1), the share shall be treated as if one-quarter of its nominal value, together with the whole of any premium on it, had been received.

(3) In the circumstances of subsection (2), the allottee is liable to pay the company the minimum amount which should have been received in respect of the share under subsection (1) (less the value of any consideration actually applied in payment up, to any extent, of the share and any premium on it) with interest at the appropriate rate.

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to the allotment of bonus shares, unless the allottee knew or ought to have known that the shares were allotted in contravention of subsection (1).

Restrictions on payment by long-term undertaking.

90.(1) A public company may not allot shares as fully or partly paid up (as to their nominal value or any premium on them) except in cash if the consideration for the allotment is or includes an undertaking which is to be, or may be, performed more than 5 years after the date of allotment.

(2) If a company allots shares in contravention of subsection (1), the allottee is liable to pay the company an amount equal to the total of their nominal value and the whole of any premium (or, if the case so requires, so much of that total as is treated as paid up by the undertaking), with interest at the appropriate rate.

(3) Where a contract for the allotment of shares does not contravene subsection (1), any variation of the contract which has that effect is void.

(4) Subsection (3) applies also to the variation by a public company of the terms of a contract entered into before the company was re-registered as a public company.

(5) Where a public company allots shares for a consideration which consists of or includes (in accordance with subsection (1)) an undertaking which is to be performed within 5 years of the allotment, but the undertaking is not performed within the period allowed by the contract for the allotment of the shares, the allottee is then liable to pay the company, at the end of the period so allowed, an amount equal to the total of the nominal value of the shares and the whole of any premium (or, if the case so requires, so much of that total as is treated as paid up by the undertaking), with interest at the appropriate rate.

(6) A reference in this section to a contract for the allotment of shares includes an ancillary contract relating to payment in respect of them.

Non-cash consideration to be valued before allotment.

91.(1) Subject to section 92 and the following provisions of this section, a public company shall not allot shares as fully or partly paid up (as to their nominal value or any premium on them) except in cash unless—

- (a) the consideration for the allotment has been independently valued under Part I of Schedule 4;
- (b) a report with respect to its value has been made to the company by a person appointed by the company during the 6 months immediately preceding the allotment of the shares; and
- (c) a copy of the report has been sent to the proposed allottee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where an amount standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or of its profit and loss account, is applied in paying up (to any extent) any shares allotted to members of the company or any premiums on shares so allotted.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the allotment of shares by a company in connection with an arrangement providing for the allotment of shares in that company on terms that—

- (a) the whole or part of the consideration for the shares allotted is to be provided by the transfer to that company (or cancellation) of all or some of the shares, or all or some of the shares of a particular class, in another company (with or without the issue to that company of shares, or of shares of any particular class, in that other company); and
- (b) the arrangement is open to all shareholders in the other company (or all shareholders of the particular class, if the arrangement is limited to a particular class of shares), and in determining whether that is the case, shares held by or by a nominee of the company proposing to allot the shares in connection with the arrangement, or held by or by a nominee of a company which is that company's holding company or subsidiary or a company which is a subsidiary of its holding company, shall be disregarded.

(4) Subsection (1) does not apply to the allotment of shares by a company in connection with its proposed merger with another company; that is, where one of the companies proposes to acquire all the assets and liabilities of the other in exchange for the issue of shares or other securities in the first company to shareholders of the other, with or without any cash payment to those shareholders.

(5) If a company allots shares in contravention of subsection (1) and either—

- (a) the allottee has not received the valuer's report required by that subsection to be sent to him; or
- (b) there has been some other contravention of this section or Part I of Schedule 4 which the allottee knew or ought to have known amounted to a contravention, the allottee shall be liable to pay the company an amount equal to the total of the nominal value of the shares and the whole of any premium (or, if the case so requires, so much of that total as is treated as paid up by the consideration), with interest at the appropriate rate.

(6) A public company shall deliver to the Registrar for registration a copy of the report mentioned in subsection (1) at the same time as a return of the documents is filed under section 86.

(7) If subsection (6) is not complied with, every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 5 on the standard scale, and for continued contravention to a daily default fine of £500.

Exception to valuation requirement: Merger and Division.

92. The requirement for valuation of non-cash consideration does not apply to the allotment of shares by a company as part of a scheme to which sections 303 to 351 apply if—

- (a) in the case of a scheme involving a merger, an expert's report is drawn up as required by section 310; or
- (b) in the case of a scheme involving a division, an expert's report is drawn up as required by section 331.

Transfer to public company of non-cash asset in initial period.

93.(1) Subject to subsection (7), a public company shall not, unless the conditions of this section have been complied with, enter into an agreement with a person for the transfer by him during the initial period of one or more non-cash assets to the company or another if—

- (a) that person is a subscriber to the company's memorandum; and
- (b) the consideration for the transfer to be given by the company is equal in value at the time of the agreement to one-tenth or more of the nominal value of the company's share capital issued at the time.

(2) In subsection (1) the "initial period" is the period of 2 years beginning with the date on which the company was issued with a certificate by the Registrar under section 181(4) that it was entitled to commence business.

(3) This section applies to a company re-registered as a public company, but in that case—

- (a) subsection (1)(a) shall be read as if it referred to a person who is a member of the company on the date of re-registration; and
- (b) the initial period is 2 years beginning with the date of re-registration.

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are that—

- (a) the consideration to be received by the company (that is to say, the asset to be transferred to the company or the advantage to the company of its transfer to another person) and any consideration other than cash to be given by the company have been independently valued under Part II of Schedule 4;
- (b) a report with respect to the consideration to be so received and given has been made to the company during the 6 months immediately preceding the date of the agreement;
- (c) the terms of the agreement have been approved by an ordinary resolution of the company; and
- (d) not later than the giving of the notice of the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, copies of the resolution and report have been circulated to the members of the company entitled to receive that notice and, if the person with whom the agreement in question is proposed to be made is not then a member of the company so entitled, to that person.

(5) A company which has passed a resolution under this section with respect to the transfer of an asset shall, within 30 days of so doing, deliver to the Registrar a copy of that resolution together with the report required by this section.

(6) If subsection (5) is not complied with, the company and every officer of it who is in default is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 3 on the standard scale and for continued contravention to a daily default fine of £100.

(7) Subsection (1) does not apply in the event of an increase in subscribed capital made in order to give effect to a merger, a division or a public offer for the purchase or exchange of shares and to pay the shareholders of the company which is being absorbed or divided or which is the object of the public offer for the purchase or exchange of shares.

(8) In the case of a merger or a division, subsection (7) shall be applied where an independent expert's report on the draft terms of merger or division is drawn up.

Authority of company required for certain allotments.

94.(1) The directors of a public company may not use any power of the company to allot relevant securities, unless they are, in accordance with this section, authorised to do so by—

- (a) the company in general meeting; or
- (b) the company's articles.

(2) In this section "relevant securities" means—

- (a) shares in the company other than shares shown in the memorandum or articles to have been taken by the subscribers to it; and
- (b) any right to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, shares in the company (other than shares so allotted), and a reference to the allotment of relevant securities includes the grant of such a right but (subject to subsection (6) below) not the allotment of shares under such a right.

(3) Authority under this section may be given for a general or particular exercise of the power and may be subject to conditions.

(4) The authority shall state the maximum amount of relevant securities that may be allotted under it and the date on which it will expire, which shall be not more than 5 years from whichever is relevant of the following dates—

- (a) in the case of an authority contained in the company's articles at the time of its original incorporation, the date of that incorporation; and
- (b) in any other case, the date on which the resolution is passed by virtue of which the authority is given, but such an authority (including an authority contained in the articles) may be previously revoked or varied by the company in general meeting.

(5) The authority may be renewed or further renewed by the company in general meeting for a period not exceeding 5 years, but the resolution shall state (or restate) the amount of relevant securities which may be allotted under the authority or, as the case may be, the amount remaining to be allotted under it, and shall specify the date on which the renewed authority will expire.

(6) In relation to authority under this section for the grant of such rights as are mentioned in subsection (2)(b), the reference in subsection (4) (and the corresponding reference in subsection (5)), to the maximum amount of relevant securities that may be allotted under the authority is to the maximum amount of shares which may be allotted under the rights.

(7) The directors may allot relevant securities, even if authority under this section has expired, if they are allotted under an offer or agreement made by the company before the authority expired and the authority allowed it to make an offer or agreement which would or might require relevant securities to be allotted after the authority expired.

(8) A resolution of a company to give, vary, revoke or renew an authority shall be forwarded to the Registrar within 30 days of the passing of that resolution.

(9) A director who knowingly contravenes, or permits or authorises a contravention of this section is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 5 on the standard scale.

(10) Nothing in this section affects the validity of any allotment.

Allotment where issue not fully subscribed.

95.(1) No allotment may be made of any share capital of a public company offered for subscription unless—

- (a) that capital is subscribed for in full; or
- (b) the offer states that, even if the capital is not subscribed for in full, the amount of that capital subscribed for may be allotted in any event or in the event of the conditions specified in the offer being satisfied, and, where conditions are so specified, no allotment of the capital may be made by virtue of paragraph (b) unless those conditions are satisfied.

(2) If shares may not be allotted under subsection (1) and 40 days have passed after the first issue of the prospectus, all money received from applicants for shares shall be immediately repaid to them without interest.

(3) If any of the money is not repaid within 48 days after the issue of the prospectus, the directors of the company are jointly and severally liable to repay it with interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum from the expiration of the 48th day, except that a director is not so liable if he proves that the default in repayment was not due to any misconduct or negligence on his part.

(4) This section applies in the case of shares offered as wholly or partly payable otherwise than in cash as it applies in the case of shares offered for subscription (the word “subscribed” in subsection (1) being construed accordingly).

(5) In subsections (2) and (3), as they apply to the case of shares offered as wholly or partly payable otherwise than in cash, references to the repayment of money received from applicants for shares include—

- (a) the return of any other consideration so received (including, if the case so requires, the release of the applicant from any undertaking); or
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to return the consideration, the payment of money equal to its value at the time it was so received.

(6) Any condition requiring or binding an applicant for shares to waive compliance with any requirement of this section is void.

Application to certain private companies of conditions as to share capital.

96. The provisions of sections 88 to 93, 181 and Schedule 4 apply where a private company ceases to be a private company in accordance with section 20 in the same way as those provisions apply to a public company.

Commissions and Discounts

Power to pay certain commissions and prohibition of payment of all other commissions and discounts.

97.(1) It shall be lawful for a company to pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company if—

- (a) the payment of the commission is authorised by the articles;
- (b) the commission paid or agreed to be paid does not exceed 10 per cent of the price at which the shares are issued or the amount or rate authorised by the articles, whichever is the less;
- (c) the amount or rate per cent of the commission paid or agreed to be paid is—
 - (i) in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the prospectus, or
 - (ii) in the case of shares not offered to the public for subscription, disclosed in the statement in lieu of prospectus, or in a statement in the prescribed form signed in like manner as a statement in lieu of prospectus and delivered before the payment of the commission to the Registrar for registration, and, where a circular or notice, not being a prospectus, inviting subscription for the shares is issued, also disclosed in that circular or notice; and
- (d) the number of shares which persons have agreed for a commission to subscribe absolutely is disclosed in the manner referred to above.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), no company shall apply any of its shares or capital money either directly or indirectly in payment of any commission, discount or allowance, to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares of the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company, whether the shares or money be so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the company or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the company, or the money be paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price, or otherwise.

(3) A vendor to, promoter of, or other person who receives payment in money or shares from, a company shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power to apply any part of the money or shares so received in payment of any commission, the payment of which, if made directly by the company, would have been legal under this section.

(4) If default is made in complying with the provisions of this section relating to the delivery to the Registrar of the statement in the prescribed form, the company and every officer of the company who is in default are guilty of offences and are each liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 1 on the standard scale.

Statement in balance sheet as to commissions and discounts.

98.(1) Where a company has paid any sums by way of commission in respect of any shares or debentures, or allowed any sums by way of discount in respect of any debentures, the total amount so paid or allowed, or so much thereof as has not been written off, shall be stated in every balance sheet of the company until the whole amount thereof has been written off.

(2) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default is guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a default fine.

Holding of shares in public company by another company.

99.(1) The subscription, acquisition or holding of shares in a public company by another company within the meaning of Article 1 of Council Directive 68/151/EEC of 9 March 1968 on the co-ordination of safeguards for the protection of the interests of members of companies in which that public company directly or indirectly holds a majority of the voting rights or on which it can directly or indirectly exercise a dominant influence will be regarded as having been effected by that public company itself.

(2) Subsection (1) applies where the other company is governed by the law of a country outside the European Union and has a legal form comparable to those listed in Article 1 of Directive 68/151/EEC.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply where the subscription, acquisition or holding is effected by the other company in its capacity or in the context of its activities as a professional dealer in securities, provided that it is a member of a stock exchange situated or operating within the European Economic Area or is approved or supervised by an authority of a member State competent to supervise professional dealers in securities.

Prohibition of provision of financial assistance by company for purchase of its own shares.

100.(1) Subject as provided in this section, it shall not be lawful for a company or any of its subsidiaries to give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase made or to be made by any person of any shares in the company.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prohibit—

- (a) where the lending of money is part of the ordinary business of a company, the lending of money by the company in the ordinary course of its business;
- (b) the provision by a company, in accordance with any scheme for the time being in force, of money for the purchase by trustees of fully-paid shares in the company to be held by or for the benefit of employees of the company, including any director holding a salaried employment or office in the company;
- (c) the making by a company of loans to persons, other than directors, bona fide in the employment of the company with a view to enabling those persons to purchase fully-paid shares in the company to be held by themselves by way of beneficial ownership.

(3) The aggregate amount of any outstanding loans made under the authority of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) shall be shown as a separate item in every balance sheet of the company.

(4) The acceptance of the company's own shares as security, either by the company itself or through a person acting in his own name but on the company's behalf, shall be treated as falling within the scope of the prohibition set out in subsection (1).

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply to transactions concluded by banks and other financial institutions in the normal course of business.

(6) If a company acts in contravention of this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 3 on the standard scale.

Relaxations of section 100 in the case of private companies.

101.(1) Section 100 does not prohibit a private company from giving financial assistance in a case where the acquisition of the shares in question was an acquisition of shares in the company or, if it is a subsidiary of another private company, in that other company, if the following provisions of this section and sections 102 to 104 are complied with as respects the giving of that assistance.

(2) The financial assistance may only be given if the company has net assets which are not thereby reduced or to the extent that they are reduced, if the assistance is provided out of distributable profits.

(3) This section does not permit financial assistance to be given by a subsidiary in a case where the acquisition of shares in question is or was an acquisition of shares in its holding company, if it is also a subsidiary of a public company which is itself a subsidiary of that holding company.

(4) Unless the company proposing to give the financial assistance is a wholly-owned subsidiary, the giving of assistance under this section must be approved by special resolution of the company in general meeting.

(5) Where the financial assistance is to be given by the company in a case where the acquisition of shares in question is or was an acquisition of shares in its holding company, that holding company and another company which is both the company's holding company and a subsidiary of that other holding company (except, in any case, a company which is a wholly owned subsidiary) shall also approve by special resolution in general meeting the giving of the financial assistance.

(6) The directors of the company proposing to give the financial assistance and, where the shares acquired or to be acquired are shares in its holding company, the directors of that company and of any other company which is both the company's holding company and a subsidiary of that other holding company shall, before the assistance is given, make a statutory declaration in the prescribed form complying with section 102.

(7) In this section, in relation to a company,—

“net assets” means the amount by which the aggregate of the company's assets exceeds the aggregate of its liabilities (taking the amount of both assets and liabilities to be as stated in the company's accounting records immediately before the financial assistance is given);

“liabilities” includes any amount retained as reasonably necessary for the purpose of providing for any liability or loss which is either likely to be incurred, or certain to be incurred but uncertain as to amount or as to the date on which it will arise.

Statutory declaration under section 101.

102.(1) A statutory declaration made by a company's directors under section 101(6) shall contain such particulars of the financial assistance to be given, and of the business of the company of which they are directors, as may be prescribed, and shall identify the person to whom the assistance is to be given.

(2) The declaration shall state that the directors have formed the opinion, as regards the company's initial situation immediately following the date on which the assistance is proposed to be given, that there will be no ground on which it could then be found to be unable to pay its debts; and either—

- (a) it is intended to commence the winding up of the company within 12 months of that date, that the company will be able to pay its debts in full within 12 months of the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) in any other case, that the company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due during the year immediately following that date.

(3) In forming their opinion for the purposes of subsection (2), the directors shall take into account the same liabilities (including contingent and prospective liabilities) as would be relevant in relation to a winding up by the court under section 10(1) of the Insolvency Act to the question whether the company is unable to pay its debts.

(4) The directors' statutory declaration shall have annexed to it a report addressed to them by the company's auditors stating that—

- (a) they have enquired into the state of affairs of the company; and
- (b) they are not aware of anything to indicate that the opinion expressed by the directors in the declaration as to any of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) is unreasonable in all the circumstances.

(5) The statutory declaration and auditors' report shall be delivered to the Registrar—

- (a) together with any special resolution passed by the company under section 101 delivered to the Registrar in compliance with any provision of this Act; or
- (b) where no declaration is required to be passed, within 30 days after the making of the declaration.

(6) If a company fails to comply with subsection (5), the company and every officer of it who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

(7) A director of a company who makes a statutory declaration under section 101 without having reasonable grounds for the opinion expressed in it shall be liable to imprisonment or to a fine or both.

Special resolution under section 101.

103.(1) A special resolution required by section 101 to be passed by a company approving the giving of financial assistance must be passed on the date on which the directors of that company make the statutory declaration required by that section in connection with the giving of assistance or within the week immediately following that date.

(2) Where such a resolution has been passed, an application may be made to the court for the cancellation of the resolution—

- (a) by the holders of not less in the aggregate than 10 per cent in nominal value of the company's issued share capital or any class of it; or
- (b) if the company is not limited by shares, by not less than 10 per cent of the company's members, but the application shall not be made by a person who has consented to or voted in favour of the resolution.

(3) On the hearing of the application the court shall make an order either cancelling or confirming the resolution and the court may—

- (a) make that order on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit;
- (b) if it thinks fit adjourn the proceedings for such purpose as it thinks fit;
- (c) give such directions, and make such orders, as it thinks expedient.

(4) A special resolution passed by a company is not effective for the purposes of section 101—

- (a) unless the declaration made in compliance with subsection (6) of that section by the directors of the company, together with the auditors' report annexed to it, is available for inspection by members of the company at the meeting at which the resolution is passed;

- (b) if it is cancelled by the court on an application under this section.

Time for giving financial assistance under section 101.

104.(1) This section has effect with respect to the time before and after which financial assistance may not be given by a company in pursuance of section 101.

(2) Where a special resolution is required by section 101 to be passed approving the giving of assistance, the assistance shall not be given before the expiry of the period of 4 weeks beginning with—

- (a) the date on which the special resolution is passed; or
- (b) where more than one such resolution is passed, the date on which the last of them is passed, unless, as respects that resolution (or, if more than one, each of them) every member of the company which passed the resolution who is entitled to vote at general meetings of the company voted in favour of the resolution.

(3) If an application for the cancellation of any such resolution is made under section 103, the financial assistance may not be given before the final determination of the application, unless the court otherwise orders.

(4) The assistance shall not be given after the expiry of 8 weeks beginning with—

- (a) the date on which the directors of the company proposing to give the assistance made their declaration under section 101; or
- (b) where that company is a subsidiary and both its directors and the directors of any of its holding companies made such a declaration, the date on which the earliest of the declarations is made, unless the court, on an application under section 103, otherwise orders.

Power of company to purchase own shares and interpretation of sections 106 to 115.

105.(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, and to any requirements imposed on that company by virtue of any licence or authorisation to which it is subject under any other Act, a company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if authorised to do so by its articles, purchase its own shares (including any redeemable shares).

(2) A company may exercise the power contained in subsection (1) only if it does so in accordance with the provisions of sections 106 to 123 as to—

- (a) the conditions to be met by the company and its directors in respect of any such purchase of its own shares; and
- (b) the application to any such purchase of the provisions of this Act.

(3) A failure to comply with the requirements of sections 106 to 123 shall have the effect specified in that respect by those sections including, where so specified, the liability on summary conviction to a fine at level 3 on the standard scale.

(4) In this section and sections 106 to 123—

“distributable profits”, in relation to the making of any payment by a company, means those profits out of which it could lawfully make a distribution equal in value to the payment;

“permissible capital payment” means the payment permitted by section 116;

“prescribed form” means the form prescribed by the Registrar from time to time, and references to payment out of capital are to be construed in accordance with section 116.

Acquisition other than for value, in reduction of capital, alteration of objects and on forfeiture.

106. The restrictions of section 105 shall not apply to a company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and by shares which—

- (a) acquires any of its own fully paid shares other than for valuable consideration;
- (b) acquires its own shares in a reduction of capital duly made;
- (c) purchases its own shares in pursuance of an order made under Part X;

- (d) accepts its own shares in forfeiture of them, or shares surrendered in lieu, in pursuance of the articles, for failure to pay any sum payable in respect of the shares.

Restrictions on power of company to purchase own shares .

107.(1) Section 124 applies to the purchase by a company under section 105 of its own shares as it applies to the redemption of redeemable shares, save that the terms and manner of purchase need not be determined by the articles as required by section 123(5).

(2) A company may not under section 105 purchase its shares if as a result of the purchase there would no longer be any member of the company holding shares other than redeemable shares.

Definitions of “off-market” and “market” purchase.

108.(1) A purchase by a company of its own shares is “off-market” if the shares either–

- (a) are purchased otherwise than on a recognised investment exchange; or
- (b) are purchased on a recognised investment exchange but are not subject to a marketing arrangement on that investment exchange.

(2) For this purpose, a company’s shares are subject to a marketing arrangement on a recognised investment exchange if the company has been afforded facilities for dealings in those shares to take place on that investment exchange without prior permission for individual transactions from the authority governing that investment exchange and without limit as to the time during which those facilities are to be available.

(3) A purchase by a company of its own shares is a “market purchase” if it is a purchase made on a recognised investment exchange other than a purchase which is an off-market purchase by virtue of subsection (1)(b).

(4) In this section “recognised investment exchange,” means a recognised investment exchange as so listed from time to time in Chapter 11 of Administrative Notice No. 7 issued by the Banking Commissioner under the provisions of the Banking Act, 1992.

Authority for off-market purchase.

109.(1) A company may only make an off-market purchase of its own shares in pursuance of a contract approved in advance in accordance with this section or under section 110.

(2) The terms of the proposed contract shall have been authorised by a special resolution of the company before the contract is entered into and subsections (3) to (7) apply with respect to that authority and to resolutions conferring it.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the authority may be varied, revoked or from time to time renewed by special resolution of the company.

(4) In the case of a public company, the authority conferred by the resolution shall specify a date on which the authority is to expire, and in a resolution conferring or renewing authority the date shall not be later than 18 months after that on which the resolution is passed.

(5) A special resolution to confer, vary, revoke or renew authority is not effective if any member of the company holding shares to which the resolution relates exercised the voting rights carried by any of those shares in voting on the resolution and the resolution would not have been passed if he had not done so, and for this purpose—

- (a) a member who holds shares to which the resolution relates is regarded as exercising the voting rights carried by those shares not only if he votes in respect of them on a poll on the question whether the resolution shall be passed, but also if he votes on the resolution otherwise than on a poll;
- (b) notwithstanding anything in the company's articles, any member of the company may demand a poll on that question; and
- (c) a vote and a demand for a poll by a person as proxy for a member are the same respectively as a vote and a demand by the member.

(6) Such a resolution is not effective for the purposes of this section unless (if the proposed contract is in writing) a copy of the contract or (if not) a written memorandum of its terms is available for inspection by members of the company both—

- (a) at the company's registered office for not less than 15 days ending with the date of the meeting at which the resolution is passed; and
- (b) at the meeting itself, and a memorandum of contract terms so made available shall include the names of any members holding shares to which the contract relates, and a copy of the contract so made available shall have annexed to it a written memorandum specifying any such names which do not appear in the contract itself.

(7) A company may agree to a variation of an existing contract so approved, but only if the variation is authorised by a special resolution of the company before it is agreed to, and subsections (3) to (6) apply to the authority for a proposed variation as they apply to the authority for a proposed contract, save that a copy of the original contract or (as the case may require) a memorandum of its terms, together with any variations previously made, shall also be available for inspection in accordance with subsection (6).

Authority for contingent purchase contract.

110.(1) A contingent purchase contract is a contract entered into by a company and relating to any of its shares—

- (a) which does not amount to a contract to purchase those shares; but
- (b) under which the company may (subject to any conditions) become entitled or obliged to purchase those shares.

(2) A company may only make a purchase of its own shares in pursuance of a contingent purchase contract if the contract is approved in advance by a special resolution of the company before the contract is entered into, and subsections (3) to (7) of section 109 apply to the contract and its terms.

Authority for market purchase.

111.(1) A company shall not make a market purchase of its own shares unless the purchase has first been authorised by the company in a general meeting.

(2) That authority—

- (a) may be general for that purpose, or limited to the purchase of shares of any particular class or description; and
- (b) may be unconditional or subject to conditions.

(3) The authority shall—

- (a) specify the maximum number of shares authorised to be acquired;

- (b) determine both the maximum and the minimum prices which may be paid for the shares; and
- (c) specify a date on which it is to expire.

(4) The authority may be varied, revoked or from time to time renewed by the company in general meeting, but this is subject to subsection (3), and in a resolution to confer or renew authority the date on which the authority is to expire shall not be later than 18 months after that on which the resolution is passed.

(5) A company may under this section make a purchase of its own shares after the expiry of the time limit imposed to comply with subsection (3)(c) if the contract of purchase was concluded before the authority expired and the terms of the authority permitted the company to make a contract of purchase which would or might be executed wholly or partly after its expiry.

(6) A resolution to confer or vary authority under this section may determine either or both the maximum and minimum prices for purchase by—

- (a) specifying a particular sum; or
- (b) providing a basis or formula for calculating the amount of the price in question without reference to any person's discretion or opinion.

(7) A resolution of a company conferring, varying, revoking or renewing authority under this section is subject to section 206 (resolution to be sent to Registrar within 30 days).

Assignment or release of company's right to purchase own shares.

112.(1) The rights of a company under a contract approved under section 109 or 110, or under a contract for a purchase authorised under section 111, are not capable of being assigned.

(2) An agreement by a company to release its rights under a contract approved under section 109 or 110 is void unless the terms of the release agreement are approved in advance by a special resolution of the company before the agreement is entered into, and subsections (3) to (7) of section 109 apply to approval for a proposed release agreement as to authority for a proposed variation of an existing contract.

Payments apart from purchase price to be made out of distributable profits.

113.(1) A payment made by a company in consideration of–

- (a) acquiring any right with respect to the purchase of its own shares in pursuance of a contract approved under section 110; or
- (b) the variation of a contract approved under section 109 or 110; or
- (c) the release of any of the company's obligations with respect to the purchase of any of its own shares under a contract approved under section 109 or 110 or under a contract for a purchase authorised under section 111, shall be made out of the company's distributable profits.

(2) If the requirements of subsection (1) are not satisfied in relation to a contract–

- (a) in a case within paragraph (a) of the subsection, no purchase by the company of its own shares in pursuance of that contract is lawful under section 105;
- (b) in a case within paragraph (b) of the subsection, no such purchase following the variation is lawful under section 105; and
- (c) in a case within paragraph (c) of the subsection, the purported release is void.

Disclosure by company of purchase of own shares.

114.(1) Within the period of 30 days beginning with the date on which any shares purchased by a company under section 105 are delivered to it, the company shall deliver to the Registrar for registration a return in the prescribed form stating with respect to shares of each class purchased the number and nominal value of those shares and the date on which they were delivered to the company.

(2) In the case of a public company, the return shall also state–

- (a) the aggregate amount paid by the company for the shares; and
- (b) the maximum and minimum prices paid in respect of shares of each class purchased.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a company which has given a notification to the Registrar pursuant to section 18 that it is a Collective Investment Scheme.

(4) Particulars of shares delivered to the company on different dates and under different contracts may be included in a single return to the Registrar, and in such a case the amount required to be stated under subsection (2)(a) is the aggregate amount paid by the company for all the shares to which the return relates.

(5) Where a company enters into a contract approved under section 109 or 110, or a contract for a purchase authorised under section 111, the company shall keep at its registered office—

- (a) if the contract is in writing, a copy of it; and
- (b) if the contract is not in writing, a memorandum of its terms, from the conclusion of the contract until the end of the period of 10 years beginning with the date on which the purchase of all the shares in pursuance of the contract is completed or (as the case may be) the date on which the contract otherwise determines.

(6) Every copy and memorandum so required to be kept shall, during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company may in general meeting impose, provided that not less than 2 hours in each day are allowed for inspection) be open to inspection without charge—

- (a) by any member of the company; and
- (b) if it is a public company, by any other person.

(7) If default is made in delivering to the Registrar any return required by this section, every officer of the company who is in default is liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

(8) If default is made in complying with subsection (5), or an inspection required under subsection (6) is refused, the company and every officer of it who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

(9) In the case of a refusal of an inspection required under subsection (6) of a copy or memorandum, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of it.

(10) The obligation of a company under subsection (5) to keep a copy of any contract or (as the case may be) a memorandum of its terms applies to any variation of the contract so long as it applies to the contract.

The capital redemption reserve.

115.(1) Where under section 105 shares of a company are redeemed or purchased wholly out of the company's profits, the amount by which the company's issued share capital is diminished in accordance with section 124(6) on cancellation of the shares redeemed or purchased shall be transferred to a reserve, called "the capital redemption reserve".

(2) If the shares are redeemed or purchased wholly or partly out of the proceeds of a fresh issue and the aggregate amount of those proceeds is less than the aggregate nominal value of the shares redeemed or purchased, the amount of the difference shall be transferred to the capital redemption reserve.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply if the proceeds of the fresh issue are applied by the company in making a redemption or purchase of its own shares in addition to a payment out of capital under section 116.

Redemption or purchase of own shares out of capital (private companies only)

Power of private companies to redeem or purchase own shares out of capital.

116.(1) Subject to—

- (a) the following provisions of this section;
- (b) sections 117 to 123; and
- (c) any requirements imposed on a company by virtue of any licence or authorisation to which it is subject under any other Act, a private company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if so authorised by its articles, make a payment in respect of the redemption or purchase under section 105 or (as the case may be) section 124, of its own shares otherwise than out of its distributable profits or the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares.

(2) References in this section and sections 117 to 123 to payment out of capital are (subject to subsection (6)) to any payment so made, whether or not it would be regarded apart from this section as a payment out of capital.

(3) The payment which may (if authorised in accordance with the provisions of subsections (4) to (6) and sections 117 to 123) be made by a company out of capital in respect of the redemption or purchase of its own shares is such an amount, as taken together with—

- (a) any available profits of the company; and
- (b) the proceeds of any fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the redemption or purchase, is equal to the price of redemption or purchase, and the payment permissible under this subsection is referred to in subsections (4) to (6) and sections 117 to 123 as the permissible capital payment for the shares.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), if the permissible capital payment for shares redeemed or purchased is less than their nominal amount, the amount of the difference shall be transferred to the company's capital redemption reserve.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), if the permissible capital payment is greater than the nominal amount of the shares redeemed or purchased, the amount of any capital redemption reserve, share premium account or fully paid share capital of the company may be reduced by a sum not exceeding (or by sums not in the aggregate exceeding) the amount by which the permissible capital payment exceeds the nominal amount of shares.

(6) Where the proceeds of a fresh issue are applied by a company in making any redemption or purchase of its own shares in addition to a payment out of capital under this section, the references in subsections (4) and (5) to the permissible capital payment are to be read as referring to the aggregate of that payment and those proceeds.

Availability of profits for purposes of section 116.

117.(1) The reference in section 116(3)(a) to available profits of the company is to the company's profits which are available for distribution, as determined as to availability and amount in accordance with subsections (2) to (6).

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the availability of profits for distribution and the amount thereof is to be determined by reference to—

- (a) profits, losses, assets and liabilities;
- (b) provisions as to depreciation, diminution in value of assets, retentions to meet liabilities, etc.; and
- (c) share capital and reserves (including undistributable reserves), as stated in the relevant accounts for determining the permissible capital payment for shares.

(3) The relevant accounts for this purpose are such accounts, prepared as at any date within the period for determining the amount of the permissible capital payment, as are necessary to enable a reasonable judgement to be made as to the amounts of any of the items mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (2).

(4) For the purposes of determining the amount of the permissible capital payment for shares, the amount of the company's available profits (if any) determined in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) is treated as reduced by the amount of any distributions lawfully made by the company after the date of the relevant accounts and before the end of the period for determining the amount of that payment.

(5) The reference in subsection (4) to distributions lawfully made by the company includes—

- (a) financial assistance lawfully given out of distributable profits as assistance to a person to acquire the shares of the company;
- (b) any payment lawfully made by the company in respect of the purchase of any shares in the company (except a payment lawfully made otherwise than out of distributable profits); and
- (c) a payment of any description specified in section 113(1) lawfully made by the company.

(6) References in this section to the period for determining the amount of the permissible capital payment for shares are to the period of 3 months ending with the date on which the statutory declaration of the directors purporting to specify the amount of that payment is made in accordance with section 118(3).

Conditions for payment out of capital.

118.(1) Subject to any order of the court under section 122, a payment out of capital by a private company for the redemption or purchase of its own shares is not lawful unless the requirements of this section and sections 119 and 120 are satisfied.

(2) The payment out of capital shall have been approved by a special resolution of the company.

(3) The company's directors shall have made a statutory declaration specifying the amount of the permissible capital payment for the shares in question and stating that, having made full inquiry into the affairs and prospects of the company, they have formed the opinion—

- (a) as regards its initial situation immediately following the date on which the payment out of capital is proposed to be made, that there will be no grounds on which the company could then be found unable to pay its debts; and
- (b) as regards its prospects for the year immediately following that date, that, having regard to their intentions with respect to the management of the company's business during that year and to the amount and character of the financial resources which will in their view be available to the company during that year, the company will be able to continue to carry on business as a going concern (and will accordingly be able to pay its debts as they fall due) throughout that year.

(4) In forming their opinion for purposes of subsection (3)(a), the directors shall take into account the same liabilities (including prospective and contingent liabilities) as would be relevant on any application to the court for the appointment of a liquidator under the Insolvency Act to the question whether a company is unable to pay its debts.

(5) The directors' statutory declaration shall be in the prescribed form and contain such information with respect to the nature of the company's business as may be so prescribed, and shall in addition have annexed to it a report addressed to the directors by the company's auditors stating that—

- (a) they have inquired into the company's state of affairs;
- (b) the amount specified in the declaration as the permissible capital payment for the shares in question is in their view properly determined in accordance with sections 116 and 117; and
- (c) they are not aware of anything to indicate that the opinion expressed by the directors in the declaration as to any of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) is unreasonable in all the circumstances.

(6) A director who makes a declaration under this section without having reasonable grounds for the opinion expressed in the declaration is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment or a fine, or both.

Procedure for special resolution under section 118.

119.(1) The resolution required by section 118 must be passed on, or within the week immediately following, the date on which the directors make the statutory declaration required by that section; and the payment out of capital must be made no earlier than 5 nor more than 7 weeks after the date of the resolution.

(2) The resolution shall be ineffective if any member of the company holding shares to which the resolution relates exercises the voting rights carried by any of those shares in voting on the resolution and the resolution would not have been passed if he had not done so.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2), a member who holds such shares is to be regarded as exercising the voting rights carried by them in voting on the resolution not only if he votes in respect of them on a poll on the question whether the resolution shall be passed, but also if he votes on the resolution otherwise than on a poll, and, notwithstanding anything in a company's articles, any member of the company may demand a poll on that question.

(4) The resolution shall be ineffective unless the statutory declaration and auditors' report required by section 118 are available for inspection by members of the company at the meeting at which the resolution is passed.

(5) For purposes of this section a vote and a demand for a poll by a person as proxy for a member are the same (respectively) as a vote and demand by the member.

Publicity for proposed payment out of capital.

120.(1) Within the week immediately following the date of the resolution for payment out of capital the company shall cause to be published in the Gazette a notice—

- (a) stating that the company has approved a payment out of capital for the purpose of acquiring its own shares by redemption or purchase or both (as the case may be);
- (b) specifying the amount of the permissible capital payment for the shares in question and the date of the resolution under section 118;
- (c) stating that the statutory declaration of the directors and the auditors' report required by that section are available for inspection at the company's registered office; and
- (d) stating that any creditor of the company may at any time within the 5 weeks immediately following the date of the resolution for payment out of capital apply to the court under section 121 for an order prohibiting the payment.

(2) Within the week immediately following the date of the resolution the company shall also either cause a notice to the same effect as that required by subsection (1) to be published in a newspaper circulating in Gibraltar or give notice in writing to that effect to each of its creditors.

(3) References in subsections (4) and (5) to the first notice date are to the day on which the company first publishes the notice required by subsection (1) or first publishes or gives the notice required by subsection (2) (whichever is the earlier).

(4) Not later than the first notice date the company shall deliver to the Registrar a copy of the statutory declaration of the directors and of the auditors' report required by section 118.

(5) The statutory declaration and auditors' report—

- (a) shall be kept at the company's registered office throughout the period beginning with the first notice date and ending 5 weeks after the date of the resolution for payment out of capital; and
- (b) shall during business hours on any day during that period be open to the inspection of any member or creditor of the company without charge.

(6) If an inspection required under subsection (5) is refused the company and every officer of it who is in default shall be liable to a fine and, for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

(7) In the case of refusal of an inspection required under subsection (5) of a declaration or report, the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of that declaration or report.

Objections by company's members or creditors.

121.(1) Where a private company passes a special resolution under section 118 approving any payment out of capital for the redemption or purchase of any of its shares—

- (a) any member of the company other than one who consented to or voted in favour of the resolution; and
- (b) any creditor of the company, may within 5 weeks of the date on which the resolution was passed apply to the court for cancellation of the resolution.

(2) The application may be made on behalf of the persons entitled to make it by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(3) If an application is made, the company shall—

- (a) forthwith give notice in the prescribed form of that fact to the Registrar; and
- (b) within 15 days from the making of any order of the court on the hearing of the application, or such longer period as the court may by order direct, deliver an office copy of the order to the Registrar.

(4) A company which fails to comply with subsection (3), and any officer of it who is in default, shall be liable to a fine and for continued contravention, to a daily default fine.

Powers of court on application under section 121.

122.(1) On the hearing of an application under section 121 the court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the court's satisfaction for the purchase of the interests of dissentient members or for the protection of dissentient creditors (as the case may be), and the court may give such directions and make such orders as it thinks expedient for facilitating or carrying into effect any such arrangement.

(2) Without prejudice to its powers under subsection (1), the court shall make an order on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit either confirming or cancelling the resolution, and, if the court confirms the resolution, it may in particular by order alter or extend any date or period of time specified in the resolution or in any provision in sections 105 to 123 which applies to the redemption or purchase of shares to which the resolution refers.

(3) The court's order may, if the court thinks fit, provide for the purchase by the company of the shares of any of its members and for the reduction accordingly of the company's capital, and may make such alterations in the company's memorandum and articles as may be required in consequence of that provision.

(4) If the court's order requires the company not to make any, or any specified alteration in its memorandum or articles, the company has not then power without leave of the court to make any such alteration in breach of the requirement.

(5) An alteration in the memorandum or articles made by virtue of an order under this section, if not made by resolution of the company, is of the same effect as if duly made by resolution, and this Act applies accordingly to the memorandum or articles as so altered.

Effect of company's failure to redeem or purchase.

123.(1) This section has effect where a company has—

- (a) issued shares on terms that they are or are liable to be redeemed; or
- (b) agreed to purchase any of its own shares.

(2) The company is not liable in damages in respect of any failure on its part to redeem or purchase any of the shares.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to any right of the holder of the shares other than his right to sue the company for damages in respect of its failure, but the court shall not grant an order for specific performance of the terms of redemption or purchase if the company shows that it is unable to meet the costs of redeeming or purchasing the shares in question out of distributable profits.

(4) If the company is wound up and at the commencement of the winding up any of the shares have not been redeemed or purchased, the terms of redemption or purchase may be enforced against the company, and when shares are redeemed or purchased under this subsection they are treated as cancelled.

(5) Subsection (4) does not apply if–

- (a) the terms provided for the redemption or purchase to take place at a date later than that of the commencement of the winding up; or
- (b) during the period beginning with the date on which the redemption or purchase was to have taken place and ending with the commencement of the winding up, the company could not at any time have lawfully made a distribution equal in value to the price at which the shares were to have been redeemed or purchased.

(6) There shall be paid in priority to any amount which the company is liable under subsection (4) to pay in respect of any shares–

- (a) all other debts and liabilities of the company (other than any due to members in their character as such); and
- (b) if other shares carry rights (whether as to capital or as to income) which are preferred to the rights as to capital attaching to the first mentioned shares, any amount due in satisfaction of those preferred rights, but, subject to that, any such amount shall be paid in priority to any amounts due to members in satisfaction of their rights (whether as to capital or income) as members.

Issue of redeemable preference shares and shares at discount

Power to issue redeemable shares.

124.(1) Subject to the restrictions and conditions set out in subsection (2) and to the following provisions of this section, a company limited by shares or limited by guarantee and having a share capital, may, if so authorised by its articles, issue redeemable shares which are, or are liable, to be redeemed at the option of the company or the shareholder.

- (2) The restrictions and conditions referred to above are—
- (a) no such shares shall be redeemed except out of profits of the company which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purposes of the redemption;
 - (b) no such shares shall be redeemed unless they are fully paid, and the terms of redemption must provide for payment on redemption;
 - (c) where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, there shall out of profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend be transferred to a reserve fund, to be called “the capital redemption reserve fund”, a sum equal to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed, and the provisions of this Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a company, shall, except as provided in this section, apply as if the capital redemption reserve fund were paid-up share capital of the company; and
 - (d) the premium, if any, payable on redemption, shall have been provided for out of the profits of the company which would otherwise have been available for dividend, or out of the company’s share premium account before the shares are redeemed.
- (3) There shall be included in the annual accounts of a company which has issued redeemable shares a statement specifying what part of the issued capital of the company consists of those shares and the date on or before which those shares are, or are to be liable, to be redeemed.
- (4) If a company fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (3), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 3 on the standard scale.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this section, the redemption of redeemable shares may be effected on such terms and in such manner as may be provided by the company's articles.

(6) Shares redeemed under this section shall be treated as cancelled on redemption, and the amount of the company's issued share capital shall be diminished by the nominal value of those shares accordingly; but the redemption of shares by a company shall not be taken as reducing the amount of the company's authorised share capital.

(7) Where in pursuance of this section a company has redeemed or is about to redeem any redeemable shares, it shall have power to issue shares up to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed or to be redeemed as if those shares had never been issued.

(8) Where new shares have been issued in pursuance of subsection (7), the capital redemption reserve fund may be applied by the company in paying up unissued shares of the company to be allotted to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares.

Application of premiums received on issue of shares.

125.(1) Where a company issues shares at a premium, whether for cash or otherwise, a sum equal to the aggregate amount or value of the premiums on those shares shall be transferred to an account to be called "the share premium account"; and the provisions of this Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a company shall, except as provided in this section, apply as if the share premium account were paid up share capital of the company.

(2) The share premium account may, notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), be applied by the company in paying up unissued shares of the company to be allotted to members of the company as fully paid bonus shares, in writing off—

- (a) the preliminary expenses of the company; or
- (b) the expenses of, or the commission paid or discount allowed on, any issue of shares or debentures of the company; or
- (c) in providing for the premium payable on redemption of any redeemable shares or of any debentures of the company.

Power to issue shares at a discount.

126.(1) Subject to the conditions set out in subsection (2) and to the following provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for a private company to issue at a discount shares in the company of a class already issued.

(2) The conditions referred to above are–

- (a) that the issue of the shares at a discount must be authorised by resolution passed in general meeting of the company, and must be sanctioned by the Registrar of the Court;
- (b) that the resolution must specify the maximum rate of discount at which the shares are to be issued;
- (c) that, at the date of the issue, not less than 1 year must have elapsed since the date on which the company was entitled to commence business; and
- (d) that the shares to be issued at a discount must be issued within 1 month after the date on which the issue is sanctioned by the Registrar of the Court or within such extended time as the Registrar of the Court may allow.

(3) Where a company has passed a resolution authorising the issue of shares at a discount, it may apply to the Registrar of the Court for an order sanctioning the issue and, on any such application the Registrar of the Court, if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, thinks proper so to do, may make an order sanctioning the issue on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

(4) Every prospectus relating to the issue of the shares and every balance sheet issued by the company subsequently to the issue of the shares must contain particulars of the discount allowed on the issue of the shares or of so much of that discount as has not been written off at the date of the issue of the document in question.

(5) If default is made in complying with subsection (4), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of offences and liable on summary conviction to default fines.

Miscellaneous provisions as to share capital

Power of company to arrange for different amounts being paid on shares.

127. A company, if so authorised by its articles, may do any one or more of the following things–

- (a) make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the shareholders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares;
- (b) accept from any member the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, although no part of that amount has been called up;
- (c) pay dividend in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.

Fractional shares.

128.(1) Except in so far as any provision of a company's constitution otherwise provides, a company having a share capital may issue fractional shares.

- (2) A fractional share issued in accordance with subsection (1)–
 - (a) has the corresponding fractional rights, obligations and liabilities of a whole share of the same class; and
 - (b) for the purposes only of section 7(5)(b) shall be treated as a whole share.

Reserve liability of limited company.

129. A limited company may by special resolution determine that any portion of its share capital which has not been already called up shall not be capable of being called up, except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up, and thereupon that portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in that event and for those purposes.

Power of company limited by shares to alter its share capital.

130.(1) A company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital, if so authorised by its articles, may alter the conditions of its constitution as follows, that is to say, it may–

- (a) increase its share capital by new shares of such amount as it thinks expedient;
- (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- (c) re-classify all or any of its share capital as it thinks expedient;

- (d) convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into paid-up shares of any denomination;
- (e) subdivide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by its constitution, so, however, that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount (if any) unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
- (f) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

(2) The powers conferred by this section must be exercised by the company in general meeting.

(3) A cancellation of shares in pursuance of this section shall not be deemed to be a reduction of share capital within the meaning of this Act.

Notice to Registrar of consolidation of share capital and conversion of shares into stock.

131.(1) If a company having a share capital has—

- (a) consolidated and divided its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares; or
- (b) converted any shares into stock; or
- (c) re-classified all or any of its share capital; or
- (d) re-converted stock into shares; or
- (e) subdivided its shares or any of them; or
- (f) redeemed any redeemable preference shares; or
- (g) cancelled any shares, otherwise than in connection with a reduction of share capital under section 136, it shall within 30 days after so doing give notice thereof to the Registrar specifying, as the case may be, the shares consolidated, divided, converted, re-classified, subdivided, redeemed or cancelled, or the stock re-converted.

(2) Subsection (1)(f) shall not apply to a company which has given a notice to the Registrar pursuant to section 18 that the company is a Collective Investment Scheme.

(3) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default are guilty of offences and are liable on summary conviction to default fines.

Notice of increase of share capital.

132.(1) Where a company having a share capital, whether its shares have or have not been converted into stock, has increased its share capital beyond the registered capital, it shall within 15 days after the passing of the resolution authorising the increase, give to the Registrar notice of the increase, and the Registrar shall record the increase.

(2) The notice to be given shall include such particulars as may be prescribed with respect to the classes of shares affected and the conditions subject to which the new shares have been or are to be issued, and there shall be forwarded to the Registrar together with the notice a printed copy of the resolution authorising the increase.

(3) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a default fine.

Power of unlimited company to provide for reserve share capital on re-registration.

133. An unlimited company having a share capital may, by its resolution for registration as a limited company in pursuance of this Act, do either or both of the following things, namely–

- (a) increase the nominal amount of its share capital by increasing the nominal amount of each of its shares, but subject to the condition that no part of the increased capital shall be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up;
- (b) provide that a specified portion of its uncalled share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up.

Power of company to pay interest out of capital in certain cases.

134.(1) Where any shares of a company are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a lengthened period, the company may pay interest on so much of that share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned below, and may charge the sum so paid by way of interest to capital as part of the cost of construction of the work or building, or the provision of plant.

(2) Subsection (1) is subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely, that—

- (a) no such payment as is referred to in that subsection shall be made unless it is authorised by the articles or by special resolution;
- (b) no such payment, whether authorised by the articles or by special resolution, shall be made without the previous consent of the Registrar of the Court;
- (c) before sanctioning any such payment the Registrar of the Court may, at the expense of the company, appoint a person to inquire and report to him as to the circumstances of the case, and may, before making the appointment, require the company to give security for the payment of the costs of the inquiry;
- (d) the payment shall be made only for such period as may be determined by the Registrar of the Court, and that period shall in no case extend beyond the close of the half year next after the half year during which the works or buildings have been actually completed or the plant provided;
- (e) the rate of interest shall in no case exceed 5 per cent per annum or such other rate as may for the time being be prescribed by order made by the Minister and published in the Gazette;
- (f) the payment of the interest shall not operate as a reduction of the amount paid up on the shares in respect of which it is paid;
- (g) the accounts of the company shall show the share capital on which, and the rate at which, interest has been paid out of capital during the period to which the accounts relate.

(3) If default is made in complying with paragraph (g) of subsection (2), the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine at level 2 on the standard scale.

Authorised minimum.

135.(1) A public limited company may not commence business unless the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital is not less than the authorised minimum.

(2) In this Act "the authorised minimum" in relation to the paid up share capital of a public company means £20,500 or such other sum as the Minister may specify by order published in the Gazette.

(3) An order under this section which increases the authorised minimum may—

- (a) require any public company having an allotted share capital of which the nominal value is less than the amount specified in the order as the authorised minimum to increase that value to not less than that amount or to apply to be re-registered as a private company;
- (b) make, in connection with any such requirement, provision for—
 - (i) any matters relating to the company's registration, re-registration or change of name, to payment for any share comprised in a company's capital and to offers of shares in or debentures of a company to the public, and
 - (ii) the consequences (whether in criminal law or otherwise) of a failure to comply; and
- (c) contain such additional provisions as are appropriate, make different provisions for different cases and provide for any provision of the order to come into force on different days for different purposes.

(4) Where the court makes an order confirming a reduction of a public company's capital which has the effect of bringing the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital below the authorised minimum, the Registrar shall not register the order under section 139 unless the court otherwise directs or the company is first re-registered as a private company.

(5) The court making any such order in respect of a company may authorise the company to be re-registered as a private company without its having passed a special resolution and, where the court so authorises a company, the court shall specify in the order the alterations in the company's memorandum and articles to be made in connection with that re-registration.

Reduction of share capital

Special resolution for reduction of share capital.

136.(1) Subject to confirmation by the Registrar of the Court, a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if so authorised by its articles, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way, and in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may—

- (a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up; or
- (b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital which is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or
- (c) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid-up share capital which is in excess of the wants of the company, and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

(2) A special resolution under this section is in this Act referred to as “a resolution for reducing share capital”.

Application to court for confirming order, objections by creditors, and settlement of list of objecting creditors.

137.(1) Where a company has passed a resolution for reducing share capital, it may apply by petition to the Registrar of the Court for an order confirming the reduction.

(2) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the Registrar of the Court so directs, the following provisions shall have effect, subject nevertheless to subsection (3)—

- (a) every creditor of the company who—
 - (i) at the date fixed by the Registrar of the Court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, and
 - (ii) can show that there is a real likelihood that the reduction would result in the company being unable to discharge his debt or claim when it fell due, is entitled to object to the reduction of capital;

- (b) the Registrar of the Court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction;
- (c) where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not been determined does not consent to the reduction, the Registrar of the Court may, if he thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the Registrar of the Court may direct, the following amount—
 - (i) if the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim, or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim, and
 - (ii) if the company does not admit and is not willing to provide for the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the Registrar of the Court after the same inquiry as if the company were being wound up by the Registrar of the Court.

(3) Where a proposed reduction of share capital involves either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid up share capital, the Registrar of the Court may, if having regard to any special circumstances of the case he thinks proper so to do, direct that subsection (2) shall not apply as regards any class or any classes of creditors.

(4) Where an application for an order under this section is made prior to 17 March 2011, that application shall be considered as though regulation 3(a) of the Companies Act (Amendment) Regulations 2011 had not come into operation.

Order confirming reduction and powers of court on making such order.

138.(1) The Registrar of the Court, if satisfied, with respect to every creditor of the company who under section 137 is entitled to object to the reduction, that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged or has determined, or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit.

- (2) Where the Registrar of the Court makes any such order, then—
- (a) if for any special reason he thinks proper so to do, the Registrar may make an order directing that the company shall, during such period, commencing on or at any time after the date of the order, as is specified in the order, add to its name as the last words thereof, the words “and reduced”; and
 - (b) The Registrar may make an order requiring the company to publish as he directs the reasons for reduction or such other information in regard thereto as he may think expedient with a view to giving proper information to the public, and, if he thinks fit, the causes which led to the reduction.

(3) Where a company is ordered to add to its name the words “and reduced” those words shall, until the expiration of the period specified in the order, be deemed to be part of the name of the company.

Registration of order and minute of reduction.

139.(1) The Registrar—

- (a) on production to him of an order of the Registrar of the Court confirming the reduction of the share capital of a company; and
- (b) on the delivery to him of a copy of the order and of a minute approved by the Registrar of the Court showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the order,—
 - (i) the amount of the share capital,
 - (ii) the number of shares into which it is to be divided,
 - (iii) the amount of each share, and
 - (iv) the amount (if any) at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share, shall register the order and minute.

(2) On the registration of the order and minute, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital as confirmed by the order so registered shall take effect.

(3) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the Registrar of the Court may direct.

(4) The Registrar shall certify under his hand the registration of the order and minute, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Act with respect to reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

(5) The minute when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum, and shall be valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained therein.

(6) The substitution of any such minute for part of the memorandum of the company shall be deemed to be an alteration of the memorandum and, accordingly, relevant to determining what is an up-to date copy of the memorandum for the purposes of section 35(1)(a).

Liability of members in respect of reduced shares.

140.(1) Subject to subsection (2), in the case of a reduction of share capital, a member of the company, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference (if any) between the amount of the share as fixed by the minute and the amount paid, or the reduced amount (if any) which is to be deemed to have been paid, on the share, as the case may be.

(2) If any creditor, entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital, is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction, or of their nature and effect with respect to his claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and, after the reduction, the company is unable, within the meaning of the provisions of this Act with respect to winding up by the court, to pay the amount of his debt or claim, then, notwithstanding subsection (1),—

- (a) every person who was a member of the company at the date of the registration of the order for reduction and minute, shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before the said date; and
- (b) if the company is wound up, the court, on the application of any such creditor and proof of his ignorance as mentioned above, may, if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list, as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Penalty on concealment of name of creditor.

141. A director, manager or other officer of the company who—

- (a) wilfully conceals the name of any creditor entitled to object to the reduction; or
- (b) wilfully misrepresents the nature or amount of the debt or claim of any creditor; or
- (c) aids, abets or is privy to any such concealment or misrepresentation, shall be guilty of an offence.

Public companies reducing capital below authorised minimum.

142.(1) This section applies where the court makes an order confirming a reduction of a public company's capital which has the effect of bringing the nominal value of its allotted share capital below the authorised minimum.

(2) The Registrar shall not register the order under section 139 unless the court otherwise directs, or the company is first re-registered as a private company.

(3) The court may authorise the company to be so re-registered without its having passed a special resolution to this effect, and where that authority is given, the court shall specify in the order the alterations in the company's memorandum and articles to be made in connection with that re-registration.

(4) The company may then be re-registered as a private company, if an application in the prescribed form and signed by a director or secretary of the company is delivered to the Registrar in accordance with sections 45 to 49, together with a printed copy of the memorandum and articles as altered by the court's order and the prescribed fee.

(5) On receipt of such an application, the Registrar shall retain it and the other documents delivered with it and issue the company with a certificate of incorporation appropriate to a company which is not a public company, and—

- (a) the company by virtue of the issue of the certificate shall become a private company, and the alterations set out in the court's order take effect; and

- (b) the certificate is conclusive evidence that the requirements of this section in respect of re-registration and of the matters precedent and incidental thereto have been complied with and that the company is a private company.

Variation of shareholders' rights

Rights of holders of special classes of shares.

143.(1) If in the case of a company the share capital of which is divided into different classes of shares, provision is made by the articles for authorising the variation of the rights attached to any class of shares in the company subject to—

- (a) the consent of any specified proportion of the holders of the issued shares of that class; or
- (b) the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of those shares, and in pursuance of those provisions the rights attached to any such class of shares are at any time varied, the holders of not less in the aggregate than 15 per cent of the issued shares of that class, being persons who did not consent to or vote in favour of the resolution for the variation, may apply to the court to have the variation cancelled, and, where any such application is made, the variation shall not have effect unless and until it is confirmed by the court.

(2) An application under this section must be made within 7 days after the date on which the consent was given or the resolution was passed, as the case may be, and may be made on behalf of the shareholders entitled to make the application by such one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose.

(3) On any such application the court, after hearing the applicant and any other persons who apply to the court to be heard and appear to the court to be interested in the application, may, if it is satisfied, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, that the variation would unfairly prejudice the shareholders of the class represented by the applicant, disallow the variation and shall, if not so satisfied, confirm the variation.

(4) The decision of the court on any such application shall be final.

(5) The company shall within 15 days after the making of an order by the court on any such application forward a copy of the order to the Registrar and, if default is made in complying with this provision, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of offences and liable on summary conviction to default fines.

(6) In this section, the expression “variation” includes abrogation and the expression “varied” shall be construed accordingly.

Variation of rights attached to any class of shares.

144.(1) This section applies in relation to the variation of the rights attached to any class of shares in a company whose share capital is divided into shares of different classes.

(2) Where the rights are attached to a class of shares otherwise than by the company’s memorandum, and the company’s articles do not contain provisions with respect to the variation of the rights, those rights may be varied only if—

- (a) the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of that class agree in writing to the variation; or
- (b) an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of that class approves the variation, and any requirement (however imposed) in relation to the variation of those rights shall be regarded as complied with to the extent that it is not comprised in subsection (2)(a) or (b).

(3) Where the variation of those rights is connected with the giving, variation, revocation, or renewal of an authority for allotment or with a reduction of capital those rights shall not be valid unless—

- (a) the condition mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b) is satisfied; and
- (b) any requirement of the memorandum or articles in relation to the variation of rights of that class shall be regarded as complied with to the extent that it is not comprised in that condition.

Protection of members against unfair prejudice

Petition by company member.

145.(1) A member of a company may apply to the court by petition for an order under this Part on the ground—

- (a) that the company’s affairs are being or have been conducted in a manner that is unfairly prejudicial to the interests of members generally or of some part of its members (including at least himself); or

- (b) that an actual or proposed act or omission of the company (including an act or omission on its behalf) is or would be so prejudicial.

(2) The provisions of this Part apply to a person who is not a member of a company but to whom shares in the company have been transferred or transmitted by operation of law as they apply to a member of a company.

Petition by the Minister.

146.(1) This section applies to a company in respect of which the Minister has exercised his powers under section 211.

- (2) If it appears to the Minister that in the case of such a company—
 - (a) the company's affairs are being or have been conducted in a manner that is unfairly prejudicial to the interests of members generally or of some part of its members; or
 - (b) an actual or proposed act or omission of the company (including an act or omission on its behalf) is or would be so prejudicial, he may apply to the court by petition for an order under this Part.

(3) The Minister may do this in addition to, or instead of, presenting a petition for the winding up of the company.

(4) In this section, and so far as applicable for the purposes of this section in the other provisions of this Part, "company" means any body corporate that is liable to be wound up under the Insolvency Act.

Powers of the court under this Part.

147.(1) If the court is satisfied that a petition under this Part is well founded, it may make such order as it thinks fit for giving relief in respect of the matters complained of.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the court's order may—
 - (a) regulate the conduct of the company's affairs in the future;
 - (b) require the company—

- (i) to refrain from doing or continuing an act complained of, or
 - (ii) to do an act that the petitioner has complained it has omitted to do;
- (c) authorise civil proceedings to be brought in the name and on behalf of the company by such person or persons and on such terms as the court may direct;
- (d) require the company not to make any, or any specified, alterations in its articles without the leave of the court;
- (e) provide for the purchase of the shares of any members of the company by other members or by the company itself and, in the case of a purchase by the company itself, the reduction of the company's capital accordingly.

149.(1) Where an order of the court under this Part—

- (a) alters the company's constitution; or
- (b) gives leave for the company to make any, or any specified, alterations to its constitution, the company must deliver a copy of the order to the Registrar.

(2) It must do so within 14 days from the making of the order or such longer period as the court may allow.

(3) If a company makes default in complying with this section, an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company; and
- (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

Supplementary provisions where company's constitution altered.

150.(1) This section applies where an order under this Part alters a company's constitution.

(2) If the order amends—

- (a) a company's articles; or
- (b) any resolution or agreement to which Chapter 1 of Part III applies, the copy of the order delivered to the Registrar by the company under section 149 must be accompanied by a copy of the company's articles, or the resolution or agreement in question, as amended.

(3) Every copy of a company's articles issued by the company after the order is made must be accompanied by a copy of the order, unless the effect of the order has been incorporated into the articles by amendment.

(4) If a company makes default in complying with this section an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company; and
- (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Transfer of shares and debentures and evidence of title

Nature of Shares.

151.(1) The shares or other interest of any member in a company shall be personal estate, transferable in the manner provided by the articles of the company, and shall not be of the nature of real estate.

(2) Each share in a company having a share capital shall be distinguished by its appropriate number.

Miscellaneous provisions as to transfer of shares.

152.(1) Subject to subsection (2) notwithstanding anything in the articles of a company, it shall not be lawful for the company to register a transfer of shares in or debentures of the company unless a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the company.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prejudice any power of the company to register as shareholder or debenture holder any person to whom the right to any shares in or debentures of the company has been transmitted by operation of law.

(3) A transfer of the share or other interest of a deceased member of a company made by his personal representative shall, although the personal representative is not himself a member of the company, be as valid as if he had been such a member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), on the application of the transferor of any share or interest in a company, the company shall enter in its register of members the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for the entry were made by the transferee.

(5) If a company refuses to register a transfer of any shares or debentures, the company shall, within 2 months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal.

(6) If default is made in complying with subsection (5), the company and every director, manager or other officer of the company who is knowingly a party to the default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one half of the amount at level 1 on the standard scale for every day during which the default continues.

153.(1) Every company shall, within 2 months after the allotment of any of its shares, debentures or debenture stock, and within 2 months after the date on which a transfer of any of those shares, debentures or debenture stock is lodged with the company, complete and have ready for delivery the certificates of all shares, the debentures, and the certificates of all debenture stock allotted or transferred, unless the conditions of issue of the shares, debentures or debenture stock otherwise provide.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the expression “transfer” means a transfer duly stamped and otherwise valid, and does not include such a transfer as the company is for any reason entitled to refuse to register and does not register.

(3) If default is made in complying with this section, the company and every director, manager or other officer of the company who is knowingly a party to the default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one half of the amount at level 1 on the standard scale for every day during which the default continues.

(4) If any company on which a notice has been served requiring the company to make good any default in complying with the provisions of subsection (1) fails to make good the default within 10 days after the service of the notice, the court may, on the application of the person entitled to have the certificates or the debentures delivered to him, make an order directing the company and any officer of the company to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order, and any such order may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application shall be borne by the company or by any officer of the company responsible for the default.

Transfer of Shares.

154.(1) Save for any company which has notified the Registrar that it is a collective investment scheme pursuant to section 18, a private company shall, within a period of 30 days of any change in any member or any particular entered in respect of any member on the register of members, send to the Registrar a return in the prescribed form of any change among its members or in any of the particulars contained in the register of members.

Issue and effect of share warrants to bearer.

157.(1) A company limited by shares, shall not, with respect to any shares, issue sealed or signed as provided for in sections 72 to 76 a warrant stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares therein specified, and shall not provide, by coupons or otherwise, for the payment of the future dividends on the shares included in the warrant.

(2) In this Act this warrant shall be referred to as a “share warrant”.

(3) No rights attached to a share warrant issued prior to 21 March 2013 shall be exercised unless the bearer has been entered in the company’s register of members.

Redenomination of share capital

Redenomination of share capital.

159.(1) Subject to subsection (6), a limited company having a share capital may by special resolution redenominate its share capital or any class of its share capital; and in this section and sections 160 to 161 “redenominate” means convert shares having a nominal fixed value in one currency to shares having a nominal fixed value in another currency.

(2) The conversion must be made at an appropriate rate of exchange specified in the resolution; and that rate must be either—

- (a) a rate prevailing on a day specified in the resolution; or
- (b) a rate determined by taking the average of rates prevailing on each consecutive day of a period specified in the resolution, and the day or period specified for the purposes of paragraph (a) or (b) must be within the period of 30 days ending on the day before the resolution is passed.

(3) A resolution under this section may specify conditions which must be met before the redenomination takes effect.

(4) Redenomination in accordance with a resolution under this section takes effect—

- (a) on the day on which the resolution is passed; or
- (b) on such later day as may be determined in accordance with the resolution.

(5) A resolution under this section lapses if the redenomination for which it provides has not taken effect at the end of the period of 30 days beginning on the date on which it is passed.

(6) A company's articles may prohibit or restrict the exercise of the power conferred by this section.

(7) For each class of share the new nominal value of each share shall be calculated as follows:

Step One

Take the aggregate of the old nominal values of all the shares of that class.

Step Two

Translate that amount into the new currency at the rate of exchange specified in the resolution.

Step Three

Divide that amount by the number of shares in the class.

Effect of redenomination.

160.(1) The redenomination of shares under section 159 does not affect any rights or obligations of members under the company's constitution, or any restrictions affecting members under the company's constitution and, in particular, it does not affect entitlement to dividends (including entitlement to dividends in a particular currency), voting rights or any liability in respect of amounts unpaid on shares.

(2) For this purpose the company's constitution includes the terms on which any shares of the company are allotted or held.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), references to the old nominal value of the shares in any agreement or statement, or in any deed, instrument or document, shall (unless the context otherwise requires) be construed after the resolution takes effect as references to the new nominal value of the shares.

Notice to Registrar of redenomination.

161.(1) If a limited company having a share capital redenominates any of its share capital, it must within 1 month after doing so give notice to the Registrar, specifying the shares redenominated.

(2) The notice must—

- (a) state the date on which the resolution was passed; and
- (b) be accompanied by a statement of capital.

(3) The statement of capital must state with respect to the company's share capital as redenominated by the resolution—

- (a) the total number of shares of the company;
- (b) the aggregate nominal value of those shares;
- (c) for each class of shares—
 - (i) prescribed particulars of the rights attached to the shares,
 - (ii) the total number of shares of that class, and
 - (iii) the aggregate nominal value of shares of that class; and
- (d) the amount paid up and the amount (if any) unpaid on each share (whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium).

(4) If default is made in complying with this section, an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company; and
- (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for a continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

Reduction of capital in connection with redenomination.

162.(1) A limited company that passes a resolution redenominating some or all of its shares for the purpose of adjusting the nominal values of the redenominated shares, to obtain values that in the opinion of the company are more suitable, may reduce its share capital under this section.

(2) A reduction of capital under this section requires a special resolution of the company, which must be passed within 3 months of the resolution effecting the redenomination.

(3) The amount by which a company's share capital is reduced under this section—

- (a) must not exceed 10% of the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital immediately after the reduction; and
- (b) must be transferred to a reserve, called "the redenomination reserve".

(4) A reduction of capital under this section shall not extinguish or reduce any liability in respect of share capital not paid up.

(5) The redenomination reserve may be applied by the company in paying up shares to be allotted to members as fully paid bonus shares.

(6) Nothing in sections 136 to 142 applies to a reduction of capital under this section but, subject to that and to subsection (5), the provisions of this Act relating to the reduction of a company's share capital shall apply as if the redenomination reserve were paid-up share capital of the company.

Notice to Registrar of reduction of capital in connection with redenomination.

163.(1) A company that passes a special resolution under section 162 must give to the Registrar, within 30 days after the resolution is passed,—

- (a) notice of the date of the resolution, and the date of the resolution under section 159 in connection with which it was passed;
- (b) a statement of capital; and
- (c) a statement by the directors confirming that the reduction in share capital is in accordance with section 161(3)(a) (reduction of capital not to exceed 10% of nominal value of allotted shares immediately after reduction).

(2) The statement of capital must state with respect to the company's share capital as reduced by the resolution—

- (a) the total number of shares of the company;
- (b) the aggregate nominal value of those shares;
- (c) for each class of shares—
 - (i) the prescribed particulars of the rights attached to the shares,
 - (ii) the total number of shares of that class, and
 - (iii) the aggregate nominal value of shares of that class; and
- (d) the amount paid up and the amount (if any) unpaid on each share (whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium).

(3) The Registrar must register the notice and the statement of capital on receipt.

(4) The reduction of capital shall not be effective until those documents are registered.

(5) If default is made in complying with this section, an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company; and
- (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(6) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on conviction on indictment to a fine, and on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.

Special provisions as to debentures

Right of debenture holders and shareholders to inspect register of debenture holders and to have copies of trust deeds.

164.(1) Every register of holders of debentures of a company shall, except when duly closed, be open to the inspection of the registered holder of any such debentures and of any holder of shares in the company, but subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company may in general meeting impose, so that not less than 2 hours in each day shall be allowed for inspection.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a register shall be deemed to be duly closed if closed in accordance with provisions contained in the memorandum or articles or in the debentures or, in the case of debenture stock, in the stock certificates or in the trust deed or other document securing the debentures or debenture stock, during the period or those periods, not exceeding in the whole 30 days in any year, as may be specified.

(3) Every registered holder of debentures and every holder of shares in a company may require a copy of the register of the holders of debentures of the company or any part thereof on payment of the prescribed sum for every hundred words required to be copied.

(4) A copy of any trust deed for securing any issue of debentures shall be forwarded to every holder of any of those debentures at his request on payment in the case of a printed trust deed of the prescribed sum, or, where the trust deed has not been printed, on payment of the prescribed sum for every hundred words required to be copied.

(5) If inspection is refused, or a copy is refused or not forwarded, the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one half of the amount at level 1 on the standard scale, and be further liable to a default fine of one fifth of the amount at level 1 on the standard scale for every day on which the default continues.

(6) If a company fails to comply with subsections (1) to (3), the court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the register or direct that the copies required shall be sent to the person requiring them.

Perpetual debentures.

165. Notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law relating to perpetuity, a condition contained in any debentures or in any deed for securing any debentures, whether issued or executed before or after the commencement of this Act, shall not be invalid by reason only that the debentures are made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency, however remote, or on the expiration of a period, however long.

Power to re-issue redeemed debentures in certain cases.

166.(1) Where a company has redeemed any debentures previously issued, then—

- (a) unless any provision to the contrary, whether express or implied, is contained in the memorandum or articles or in any contract entered into by the company; or

- (b) unless the company has, by passing a resolution to that effect or by some other act, manifested its intention that the debentures shall be cancelled, the company shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, power to re-issue the debentures, either by re-issuing the same debentures or by issuing other debentures in their place.

(2) On a re-issue of redeemed debentures the person entitled to the debentures shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, the same priorities as if the debentures had never been redeemed.

Supplementary provisions as to auditors and their remuneration.

256.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a person, other than a retiring auditor, shall not be capable of being appointed auditor at an annual general meeting unless notice of an intention to nominate that person to the office of auditor has been given by a member to the company not less than 14 days before the annual general meeting, and the company shall send a copy of any such notice to the retiring auditor, and shall give notice of it to the members, either by advertisement or in any other mode allowed by the articles, not less than 7 days before the annual general meeting.

(2) If, after notice of the intention to nominate an auditor has been so given, an annual general meeting is called for a date 14 days or less after the notice has been given, the notice, though not given within the time required by this subsection, shall be deemed to have been properly given for the purposes thereof, and the notice to be sent or given by the company may, instead of being sent or given within the time required by this subsection, be sent or given at the same time as the notice of the annual general meeting.

(3) Subject as provided below, the first auditors of the company may be appointed by the directors at any time before the first annual general meeting, and auditors so appointed shall hold office until that meeting except that—

- (a) the company may at a general meeting of which notice has been served on the auditors in the same manner as on members of the company remove those first auditors and appoint in their place any other persons being persons who have been nominated for appointment by any member of the company and of whose nomination notice has been given to the members of the company not less than 7 days before the date of the meeting; and
- (b) if the directors fail to exercise their powers under this subsection, the company in general meeting may appoint the first auditors, and thereupon those powers of the directors shall cease.

(4) The directors may fill any casual vacancy in the office of auditor, but while any such vacancy continues, the surviving or continuing auditor or auditors (if any) may act.

(5) The remuneration of the auditors of a company shall be fixed by the company in general meeting, except that—

- (a) the remuneration of an auditor appointed before the first annual general meeting, or of an auditor appointed to fill a casual vacancy, may be fixed by the directors; and
- (b) the remuneration of an auditor appointed by the Registrar may be fixed by the Registrar.

Auditors' report and right of access to books and right to attend general meetings.

257.(1) The auditors shall make a report to the members on the accounts examined by them, and on all annual accounts laid before the company in general meeting during their tenure of office, and the report shall state—

- (a) whether or not they have obtained all the information and explanations they have required; and
- (b) whether, in their opinion, the annual accounts referred to in the report are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs according to the best of their information and the explanations given to them, and as shown by the books of the company.

(2) Every auditor of a company shall have a right of access at all times to the books and accounts and vouchers of the company, and shall be entitled to require from the directors and officers of the company such information and explanation as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of the auditors.

(3) The auditors of a company shall be entitled to attend any general meeting of the company at which any accounts which have been examined or reported on by them are to be laid before the company and to make any statement or explanation they desire with respect to the accounts.

Auditors' reports.

258.(1) Subject to section 259 where the directors of a mainstream company deliver to the Registrar the annual accounts and directors' report for a financial year, they shall also deliver, with those accounts, a full copy of the report of the person responsible for auditing the accounts.

(1A) The annual accounts and directors' report delivered under subsection (1) must be delivered in the same layout and with the same text as that used by the person responsible for auditing the accounts when drawing up his opinion.

(2) The auditors must state in their report whether in their opinion the information given in the directors' report for the financial year for which the annual accounts are prepared is consistent with those accounts and whether the directors' report has been properly prepared in accordance with this Part.

(2A) The auditors must also state in their report whether, in light of the knowledge and understanding of the company, and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, they have identified material misstatements in the directors' report and shall give an indication of the nature of any such misstatements.

(3) In addition to the information required by section 257, the auditors' report must comply with the requirements of section 28 of the Financial Services (Auditors) Act 2009.

Exemption for small companies.

259.(1) Where in respect of a financial year a mainstream company qualifies as a small company, the requirements of this Chapter relating to the appointment of auditors and the audit of account of that year shall not apply to the company if –

- (a) the company does not have to submit a return of its income pursuant to section 29 of the Income Tax Act; or
- (b) its turnover is such that it complies with the requirements specified in section 30 (1)(c) of the Income Tax Act (exemption from requirement that a return be accompanied by audited accounts).

(2) When, in a financial year, subsection (1) applies to a small company–

- (a) sections 241 and 242 have effect in respect of that company with the omission of references to the auditor's report;
- (b) no copy of an auditor's report need be delivered to the Registrar or laid before the company in general meeting; and
- (c) sections 255 and 256, except section 256 (5), do not apply to that company.

Auditors' liability

Voidness of provisions protecting auditors from liability.

- (1) This section applies to any provision—
 - (a) for exempting an auditor of a company (to any extent) from any liability that would otherwise attach to him in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company occurring in the course of the audit of accounts; or
 - (b) by which a company directly or indirectly provides an indemnity (to any extent) for an auditor of the company, or of an associated company, against any liability attaching to him in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company of which he is auditor occurring in the course of the audit of accounts.
- (2) Any such provision is void, except as permitted by—
 - (a) section 261 (indemnity for costs of successfully defending proceedings); or
 - (b) sections 262 to 264 (liability limitation agreements).
- (3) This section applies to any provision, whether contained in a company's articles or in any contract with the company or otherwise.
- (4) For the purposes of this section companies are associated if one is a subsidiary of the other or both are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

Indemnity for costs of successfully defending proceedings.

261. Section 260 (general voidness of provisions protecting auditors from liability) does not prevent a company from indemnifying an auditor against any liability incurred by him in defending proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgment is given in his favour or he is acquitted.

Liability limitation agreements.

262.(1) A “liability limitation agreement” is an agreement that purports to limit the amount of a liability owed to a company by its auditor in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, occurring in the course of the audit of accounts, of which the auditor may be guilty in relation to the company.

(2) Section 260 (general voidness of provisions protecting auditors from liability) does not affect the validity of a liability limitation agreement that—

- (a) complies with section 263 (terms of liability limitation agreement) and of any regulations under that section; and
 - (b) is authorised by the members of the company in accordance with section 264.
- (3) Such an agreement is effective to the extent provided by section 265.

Terms of liability limitation agreement.

263.(1) A liability limitation agreement—

- (a) must not apply in respect of acts or omissions occurring in the course of the audit of accounts for more than one financial year; and
 - (b) must specify the financial year in relation to which it applies.
- (2) The Minister may by regulations—

- (a) require liability limitation agreements to contain specified provisions or provisions of a specified description;
- (b) prohibit liability limitation agreements from containing specified provisions or provisions of a specified description.

“specified” here means specified in the regulations.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by subsection (2), that power may be exercised with a view to preventing adverse effects on competition.

(4) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, it is immaterial how a liability limitation agreement is framed.

In particular, the limit on the amount of the auditor’s liability need not be a sum of money, or a formula, specified in the agreement.

Authorisation of agreement by members of the company.

264.(1) A liability limitation agreement is authorised by the members of the company if it has been authorised under this section and that authorisation has not been withdrawn.

(2) A liability limitation agreement between a private company and its auditor may be authorised—

- (a) by the company passing a resolution, before it enters into the agreement, waiving the need for approval;
 - (b) by the company passing a resolution, before it enters into the agreement, approving the agreement's principal terms; or
 - (c) by the company passing a resolution, after it enters into the agreement, approving the agreement.
- (3) A liability limitation agreement between a public company and its auditor may be authorised—
- (a) by the company passing a resolution in general meeting, before it enters into the agreement, approving the agreement's principal terms; or
 - (b) by the company passing a resolution in general meeting, after it enters into the agreement, approving the agreement.
- (4) The “principal terms” of an agreement are terms specifying, or relevant to the determination of—
- (a) the kind (or kinds) of acts or omissions covered;
 - (b) the financial year to which the agreement relates; or
 - (c) the limit to which the auditor's liability is subject.
- (5) Authorisation under this section may be withdrawn by the company passing an ordinary resolution to that effect—
- (a) at any time before the company enters into the agreement; or
 - (b) if the company has already entered into the agreement, before the beginning of the financial year to which the agreement relates.

Paragraph (b) has effect notwithstanding anything in the agreement.

Effect of liability limitation agreement.

265.(1) A liability limitation agreement is not effective to limit the auditor's liability to less than such amount as is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case having regard (in particular) to—

- (a) the auditor's responsibilities under this Part;

- (b) the nature and purpose of the auditor's contractual obligations to the company; and
- (c) the professional standards expected of him.

(2) A liability limitation agreement that purports to limit the auditor's liability to less than the amount mentioned in subsection (1) shall have effect as if it limited his liability to that amount.

(3) In determining what is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case no account is to be taken of—

- (a) matters arising after the loss or damage in question has been incurred; or
- (b) matters (whenever arising) affecting the possibility of recovering compensation from other persons liable in respect of the same loss or damage.

Disclosure of agreement by company.

266.(1) A company which has entered into a liability limitation agreement must make such disclosure in connection with the agreement as the Minister may require by regulations.

(2) The regulations may provide, in particular, that any disclosure required by the regulations shall be made—

- (a) in a note to the company's annual accounts (in the case of its individual accounts) or in such manner as is specified in the regulations (in the case of group accounts); or
- (b) in the directors' report.

Other provisions relating to accounts

Voluntary revision of defective accounts and reports.

267.(1) If it appears to the directors of a company that—

- (a) the company's annual accounts; or
- (b) the directors' report, did not comply with the requirements of this Part (or, where applicable, of Article 4 of the IAS Regulation), they may prepare revised accounts or a revised report.

(2) Where copies of the previous accounts or report have been laid before the company in general meeting or delivered to the Registrar, the revisions shall be confined to—

- (a) the correction of those respects in which the previous accounts or report did not comply with the requirements of this Part (or, where applicable, of Article 4 of the IAS Regulation); and
- (b) the making of any necessary consequential alterations.

(3) The Minister may by regulations make provision as to the application of the provisions of this Chapter in relation to—

- (a) revised annual accounts; or
- (b) a revised directors' remuneration report or directors' report.

(4) The regulations may, in particular—

- (a) make different provision according to whether the previous accounts or report are replaced or are supplemented by a document indicating the corrections to be made;
- (b) make provision with respect to the functions of the company's auditor in relation to the revised accounts or report;
- (c) require the directors to take such steps as may be specified in the regulations where the previous accounts or report have been—
 - (i) sent out to members and others under section 242,
 - (ii) laid before the company in general meeting, or
 - (iii) delivered to the Registrar.

Change of accounting reference period.

268.(1) A company may, by notice given to the Registrar, specify a new accounting reference date having effect in relation to—

- (a) the company's current accounting reference period and subsequent periods; or
- (b) the company's previous accounting reference period and subsequent periods, and, for this purpose, a company's previous accounting reference period means the one immediately preceding its current accounting reference period.

(2) The notice must state whether the company's current or previous accounting reference period—

- (a) is to be shortened, so as to come to an end on the first occasion on which the new accounting reference period falls or fell after the beginning of the period;
- (b) is to be extended, so as to come to an end on the second occasion on which that date falls or fell after the beginning of the period.

(3) A notice extending a company's current or previous accounting reference period is not effective if given less than 3 years after the end of an earlier reference period of the company that was extended under this section.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply—

- (a) to a notice given by a company that is a subsidiary undertaking or parent undertaking of another EEA undertaking if the new accounting reference date coincides with that of the other EEA undertaking or, where that undertaking is not a company, with the last day of its financial year; or
- (b) where the Minister directs that it should not apply, which he may do with respect to a notice that has been given or that may be given.

(5) A notice under this section may not be given in respect of a previous accounting reference period if the period for filing accounts and reports for the financial year by reference to that accounting period has already expired.

(6) An accounting reference period may not be extended so as to exceed 18 months and a notice under this section is ineffective if the current or previous accounting reference period as extended in accordance with the notice would exceed that limit; but this subsection does not apply where the company is under administration.

(7) In this section "EEA undertaking" means an undertaking established under the law of any part of the United Kingdom or Gibraltar or the law of any other EEA state.

Supplementary

Offences.

269.(1) If a company's annual accounts as approved by the board of directors and signed on behalf of the board by a director do not comply with the requirements of this Chapter including, where appropriate, international accounting standards, every director of the company who—

- (a) knew that they did not comply, or was reckless as to whether they complied; and
- (b) failed to take reasonable steps to secure compliance with those requirements or, as the case may be, to prevent the accounts from being approved, commits an offence and shall be liable, on conviction on indictment, to a fine and, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.

(2) If a requirement of subsections (2) to (6) of section 254 or section 258 is not complied with before the end of the relevant period ascertained in accordance with section 272, the company and every officer of the company who is in default is guilty of an offence and shall be liable to pay a fixed penalty as described in subsection (4) to the Minister or on summary conviction to a fine up to level 3 on the standard scale.

(3) The Registrar may, within 6 months of the end of the relevant period ascertained in accordance with section 272, inform the Minister that a company or an officer of the company has failed to comply with a requirement of section 254, other than subsection (1), or section 258.

(4) On receipt of the information described in subsection (3), the Minister may issue a notice, in such form as he may decide, requiring the company or an officer of the company to pay a penalty of such sum as he may be prescribed for the purposes of this section.

(5) If, where a notice as described in subsection (4) is served on a company or an officer of a company,—

- (a) the amount of the penalty is paid within 1 month of the receipt of the notice; and
- (b) the failure to comply to which the notice relates is remedied within 12 months of the date of payment of the penalty, no further proceedings shall be taken against that company or officer in respect of that failure.

(6) If a company or an officer of the company served with a notice as described in subsection (4) fails to pay the amount of the penalty specified within 1 month of its receipt, that company or officer may be proceeded against for the offence of failure to comply with the requirement concerned.

(7) For the purposes of subsections (5) and (6), a company or an officer of the company shall be deemed to have received the notice described in subsection (4) on the day after it was posted to the company's registered office or, if it was delivered in person, on the day of delivery to the company's registered office.

(8) A company or person who contravenes any other requirement imposed on it or him under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine up to level 3 on the standard scale.

(9) It is a defence for a company or person charged with an offence under subsection (2) or (8) to prove that all reasonable steps were taken to ensure that the requirements of this Part (or, where applicable, of Article 4 of the IAS Regulation) would be complied with in proper time; but in any proceedings under this section it is not a defence to prove that a document necessary to comply with a requirement of this Part was in fact prepared but not delivered to the Registrar.

Exemptions from preparation, audit and publication of individual accounts.

270. Any requirements made by or under this Chapter concerning the content, auditing and delivering to the Registrar of Non-IAS accounts the directors' report do not apply to a company which is a subsidiary undertaking if the following conditions are fulfilled—

- (a) the parent undertaking must be subject to the laws of Gibraltar or an EEA State;
- (b) all shareholders or members of the company must have declared their agreement to the exemption from the obligation and this declaration must be renewed each financial year;

- (f) the exemption referred to in this section must be disclosed in the notes on the consolidated accounts specified in paragraph (e); and

271. Deleted

- (b) for a public company, 10 months after the end of that year.

(2) If the relevant financial year is the company's first, the period allowed is 12 months after the end of the financial year.

Delivery and publication of accounts in a primary currency.

273.(1) The annual accounts of a company may be delivered to the Registrar in any one primary currency.

(2) In such cases, other than in the case of a small company, where accounts are not prepared in the currency of the share capital of the company, the amounts of share capital in their original currency and the exchange rate used to translate them must be given in the notes to the accounts.

(3) the Minister may by regulation amend the list of primary currencies.

Requirements where a company wishes to circulate its accounts to the public.

274.(1) If a company circulates to the public any of its statutory accounts, they shall be accompanied by the relevant auditors' report required to be delivered to the Registrar under section 258(1).

(2) A company which is required to prepare group accounts for a financial year must not circulate to the public its statutory individual accounts for that year without also issuing with them its statutory group accounts.

(3) If a company circulates non-statutory accounts to the public, it shall publish with them a statement indicating—

 - (i) was qualified or unqualified, or included a reference to any matters to which the auditors drew attention by way of emphasis without qualifying the report, or
 - (ii) contained a statement under section 258 (2), and it shall not circulate to the public any auditors' report under section 258 with the non-statutory accounts.

Regulations.

275. The Minister may by regulations make provision in respect of the operation of this Chapter, in particular with regard to the fees chargeable for the delivery of accounts to the Registrar.

CHAPTER 3

Consolidated accounts

Interpretation and general

Parent and subsidiary undertaking.

276.(1) In this Chapter, the expressions "parent undertaking" and "subsidiary undertaking" shall be construed in accordance with the following provisions of this section; and a "parent company" means a parent undertaking which is a public company limited by shares or by guarantee or a private company limited by shares or by guarantee.

(2) An undertaking is a parent undertaking in relation to another undertaking, and the latter is a subsidiary undertaking for the purpose of this Chapter, if—

- (a) it holds a majority of the voting rights in the undertaking;
- (b) it is a member of the undertaking and has the right to appoint or remove a majority of its board of directors;
- (c) it has the right to exercise a dominant influence over the undertaking—
 - (i) by virtue of provisions contained in the undertaking’s memorandum or articles,
 - (ii) by virtue of a control contract; or
- (d) it is a member of the undertaking and controls alone, under an agreement with other shareholders or members, a majority of the voting rights in the undertaking.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) an undertaking shall be treated as a member of another undertaking—

- (a) if any of its subsidiary undertakings is a member of that undertaking; or
- (b) if any shares in that other undertaking are held by a person acting on behalf of the undertaking or any of its subsidiary undertakings.

(4) An undertaking is also a parent undertaking in relation to another undertaking, (and the latter is a subsidiary undertaking), if—

- (a) it has the power to exercise, or actually exercises, dominant influence or control over it; or
- (b) it and the subsidiary undertaking are managed on a unified basis.

(5) A parent undertaking shall be treated as the parent undertaking of undertakings in relation to which any of its subsidiary undertakings are, or are to be treated as, parent undertakings; and references to its subsidiary undertakings shall be construed accordingly.

(6) Nothing in this section affects the meaning of “subsidiary undertaking” in Chapter 2.

(7) Schedule 20 contains provisions explaining expressions used in this section and otherwise supplementing this section.

Meaning of “undertaking” and related expressions.

277.(1) In this Chapter “undertaking” means–

- (a) a corporate body or partnership; or
- (b) an unincorporated association carrying on a trade or business, with or without a view to profit.

(2) In this Chapter references to shares–

- (a) in relation to an undertaking with a share capital, are to allotted shares;
- (b) in relation to an undertaking with capital but no share capital, are to rights to share in the capital of the undertaking; and
- (c) in relation to an undertaking without capital, are to interests–
 - (i) conferring any rights to share in the profits or liability to contribute to the losses of the undertaking, or
 - (ii) giving rise to an obligation to contribute to the debts or expenses of the undertaking in the event of a winding up.

(3) Other expressions appropriate to companies shall be construed, in relation to an undertaking which is not a company, as references to the corresponding persons, officers, documents or organs, as the case may be, appropriate to undertakings of that description; but this is subject to any specific provision providing for the definition of such expressions.

(4) References in this Chapter to “fellow subsidiary undertakings” are to undertakings which are subsidiary undertakings of the same parent undertaking but are not parent undertakings or subsidiary undertakings of each other.

(5) In this Act “group undertaking”, in relation to an undertaking, means an undertaking which is–

- (a) a parent undertaking or subsidiary undertaking of that undertaking; or
- (b) a subsidiary undertaking of any parent undertaking of that undertaking.

Participating interests.

278.(1) In this Chapter a “participating interest” means an interest held by an undertaking in the shares of another undertaking which it holds on a long term basis for the purpose of securing a contribution to its activities by the exercise of control or influence arising from or related to that interest.

(2) A holding of 20 per cent or more of the shares of an undertaking shall be presumed to be a participating interest unless the contrary is shown.

(3) The reference in subsection (1) to an interest in shares includes—

- (a) an interest which is convertible into an interest in shares; and
- (b) an option to acquire shares or any such interest, and an interest or option falls within paragraph (a) or (b) even if the shares to which it relates are, until the conversion or the exercise of the option, unissued.

(4) For the purposes of this section an interest held on behalf of an undertaking shall be treated as held by it.

(5) In the balance sheet and profit and loss formats set out in Schedules 11 and 12 “participating interest” does not include an interest in a group undertaking.

(6) For the purposes of this section as it applies in relation to the expression “participating interest”—

- (a) in those formats as they apply in relation to group accounts; and
- (b) in paragraph 18 of Schedule 21 (form and content of group accounts), the references in subsections (1) to (4) to the interest held by, and the purposes and activities of, the undertaking concerned shall be construed as references to the interest held by, and the purposes and activities of, the group (within the meaning of paragraph 1 of Schedule 21).

Notes to the accounts.

279.(1) Information required by this Chapter to be given in notes to a company’s annual accounts may be contained in the accounts or in a separate document annexed to the accounts and must be presented in the order in which the items to which they relate are presented in the balance sheet and in the profit and loss account.

(2) References in this Chapter to a company’s annual accounts, or to a balance sheet or profit and loss account, include notes to the accounts giving information which is required by any provision made by or under this Act or international accounting standards, and required or allowed by any such provision to be given in a note to the company accounts.

Other definitions.

280.(1) In this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires–

“annual report” in relation to a company means the directors’ report;

“balance sheet date” means the date as at which the balance sheet was made up;

“capitalisation” in relation to work or costs, means treating that work or those costs as a fixed asset;

“Chapter 3 accounts” has the meaning assigned by section 281(4);

“group” means a parent undertaking and its subsidiary undertakings;

“included in the consolidation” in relation to group accounts, or “included in consolidated group accounts” means that the undertaking is included in the accounts by the method of full (and not proportional) consolidation, and references to an undertaking excluded from consolidation shall be construed accordingly;

“individual accounts” in relation to each financial year of a company means a balance sheet as at the last day of that year and a profit and loss account;

“profit and loss account”, in relation to a company that prepares IAS group accounts, includes an income statement or other equivalent financial statement required to be prepared by international accounting standards.

(2) Any reference to a financial year of a company shall be construed as a reference to a period in respect of which a profit and loss account of the company is made up under section 240.

(3) References in this Act to “realised profits” and “realised losses”, in relation to a company’s accounts, are to such profits or losses of the company as fall to be treated as realised in accordance with principles generally accepted, at the time when the accounts are prepared, with respect to the determination for accounting purposes of realised profits or losses.

(4) Subsection (3) is without prejudice to–

- (a) the construction of any other expression (where appropriate) by reference to accepted accounting principles or practice; or

- (b) any specific provision for the treatment of profits or losses of any description as realised.

(5) References in this Chapter to accounts giving a “true and fair view” are references–

- (a) in the case of Chapter 3 accounts, to the requirement under section 282 that the accounts give a true and fair view; and
- (b) in the case of IAS group accounts, to the requirement under international accounting standards that such accounts achieve a fair presentation.

Preparation of group accounts

Preparation of group accounts.

281.(1) If at the end of a financial year a company is a parent company, the directors, as well as preparing individual accounts for the year, shall prepare consolidated accounts for the group for the year; and in this Chapter those accounts are referred to as the company’s “group accounts”.

(2) Directors drawing up the consolidated accounts pursuant to subsection (1) have collectively the duty to ensure that the consolidated accounts, the group directors’ report and, when provided separately, the corporate governance statement to be provided pursuant to section 251 are drawn up and published in accordance with the requirements of this Chapter and, where applicable, in accordance with the international accounting standards adopted in accordance with the IAS Regulation.

(3) The group accounts of certain parent companies are required by Article 4 of the IAS Regulation to be prepared in accordance with international accounting standards (“IAS group accounts”).

(4) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the group accounts of other companies may be prepared–

- (a) in accordance with section 282 (“Chapter 3 accounts”); or
- (b) in accordance with international accounting standards (“IAS group accounts”).

(5) After the first financial year in which the directors of a parent company prepare IAS group accounts (“the first IAS year”), all subsequent group accounts of the company must be prepared in accordance with international accounting standards unless there is a relevant change of circumstance.

(6) There is a relevant change of circumstance if, at any time during or after the first IAS year–

- (a) the company becomes a subsidiary undertaking of another undertaking that does not prepare IAS group accounts;
- (b) the company ceases to be a company with securities admitted to trading on a regulated market; or
- (c) a parent undertaking of the company ceases to be an undertaking with securities admitted to trading on a regulated market.

(7) If, having changed to preparing group accounts in accordance with section 282 following a relevant change of circumstance, the directors again prepare IAS group accounts for the company, subsections (5) and (6) apply again as if the first financial year for which such accounts are again prepared were the first IAS year.

(8) This section is subject to the exemptions provided by sections 285 (exemption for parent companies included in accounts of larger group), 286 (parent companies included in non-EEA group accounts), 287(6) (all subsidiary undertakings excluded from consolidation) and 292 (small and medium sized groups).

(9) In Chapter 3, Sections 240, 241, 242, 249, 253, 254, 257, 258 267, 268, 272, 273 and 274 apply to group accounts prepared under this section.

Chapter 3 Accounts.

282.(1) Chapter 3 accounts must be drawn up clearly and comprise–

- (a) a consolidated balance sheet dealing with the state of affairs of the parent company and its subsidiary undertakings; and
- (b) a consolidated profit and loss account dealing with the profit or loss of the parent company and its subsidiary undertakings.

(A1) Chapter 3 accounts must state, in respect of the parent company–

- (a) that the company is registered in Gibraltar;

(4) A notice by a company to the Registrar under subsection (1) may be revoked at any time by the company by giving notice to the Registrar that it no longer wishes to be an investment company, within the meaning of this section, and, on giving that notice, the company shall cease to be an investment company.

Insurance companies.

356.(1) Where an insurance company carries on a long term business, any amount included in the relevant part of the balance sheet is to that part of the balance sheet—and any deficit in that fund or those funds shall be respectively treated for the purposes of this Part as a realised profit and a realised loss, and, subject to this, any profits or loss arising in that business will be left out of account for those purposes.

(2) In subsection (1)—

- (a) the reference to a surplus in any fund of an insurance company is a reference to an excess of the assets representing that fund or those funds over the liabilities of the company attributable to its long term business, as shown by an actuarial investigation;

- (b) the reference to the relevant part of the balance sheet is to that part of the balance sheet which represents Liabilities item A.V (profit and loss account) in the balance sheet format set out in section B of Chapter 1 of Schedule 1 to the Insurance Companies (Accounts Directive) Regulations 1997; and

(2) Subsection (1) is without prejudice to any obligation imposed apart from this section on a member of a company to repay a distribution unlawfully made to him; but this section does not apply in relation to–

- (a) profits, losses, assets and liabilities;
- (b) provisions for depreciation, diminution in value of assets and any amounts written off by way of such provisions; and
- (c) share capital and reserves (including undistributable reserves).

(2) In relation to a proposed distribution by a public company the interim accounts must have been properly prepared or have been so prepared subject only to matters which are not material, for determining, by reference to items mentioned in subsection (1), whether the distribution would contravene any provision of sections 353 to 356.

(3) In this section—

- (a) “interim accounts” means those accounts necessary to enable a reasonable judgement to be made as to the amounts mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1) where a distribution would contravene any provision of sections 353 to 356 if reference were made only to the company's last annual accounts;
- (b) “properly prepared” in relation to interim accounts means that the accounts must comply with any requirements imposed by or under this Act and any balance sheet comprised in the accounts must have been signed in accordance with section 241;

(6) After the expiry of the period of 10 years referred to in section 414(1), if a company or any member or creditor of a company feels aggrieved by the company having been struck off the register, then, on an application made by the company or member, the Registrar of the Court may, if satisfied that the company was at the time of the striking off carrying on business or in operation, or otherwise that it is just that the company be restored to the register, order the name of the company to be restored to the register.

(7) Upon an office copy of an order under subsection (6) being delivered to the Registrar for registration, the company shall be deemed to have continued in existence as if its name had not been struck off; and the Registrar of the Supreme Court may by the order give such directions and make such provisions as seem just for placing the company and all other persons in the same position as nearly as may be as if the name of the company had not been struck off.

Property of dissolved company to be bona vacantia.

416.(1) Where a company is dissolved, all property and rights vested in, or held on trust for, the company immediately before its dissolution (including leasehold property but not including property held by the company on trust for any other person) shall be deemed to be bona vacantia and shall accordingly belong to the Crown, and shall vest and may be dealt with in the same manner as other bona vacantia accruing to the Crown.

(3) A document or information sent or supplied in electronic form is sufficiently authenticated—

- (a) if the identity of the sender is confirmed in a manner specified by the Registrar; or
- (b) where no such manner has been specified by the Registrar, if the communication contains or is accompanied by a statement of the identity of the sender and the Registrar has no reason to doubt the truth of that statement.

Registrar’s requirements as to form, authentication and manner of delivery.

422.(1) The Registrar may impose requirements as to the form, authentication and manner of delivery of documents required or authorised to be delivered to the Registrar under any enactment.

(2) As regards the form of the document, the Registrar may—

(6) Requirements imposed under this section must not be inconsistent with requirements imposed by any enactment with respect to the form, authentication or manner of delivery of the document concerned.

Delivery to the Registrar of documents.

423.(1) This section applies to the delivery to the Registrar of documents under any provision of this Act.

(2) The document must state in a prominent position the name and the registered number of the company to which it relates.

(3) If a document is delivered to the Registrar which does not comply with the requirements of this section, he may serve on the person by whom the document was delivered (or if there are two or more such persons, on any of them), a notice indicating the respect in which the document does not comply.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), where the Registrar serves a notice as is specified in subsection (3), then, unless a replacement document—

- (a) is delivered to him within 14 days after the service of the notice; and
- (b) complies with the requirements of this section or is not rejected by him for failure to comply with those requirements, the original document shall be deemed not to have been delivered to him.

(5) For the purposes of any enactment imposing a penalty for failure to deliver, so far as it imposes a penalty for continued contravention, no account shall be taken of the period between the delivery of the original document and the end of the period of 14 days after service of the Registrar's notice.

provided, in each case, that it is accompanied by a translation of it into English certified in accordance with rule 5 of the Companies Rules to be a correct translation.

(3) Where a certified translation has been voluntarily provided pursuant to subsection (2) and there is a discrepancy between a document required to be delivered to the Registrar pursuant to subsection (1) and the certified translation accompanying it, the certified translation—

- (a) may not be relied upon by the company as against any person dealing with the company; but
- (b) may be relied upon by a person dealing with the company as against that company, unless the company proves that the person dealing with the company had knowledge of the document whose delivery was mandatory pursuant to subsection (1).

Keeping of company records by the Registrar.

425.(1) The information contained in a document delivered to the Registrar under this Act, may be recorded and kept by him in any form he thinks fit, provided it is possible to inspect the information and to produce a copy of it in printed or electronic form; and this shall be sufficient compliance with any duty of his to keep, file or register the document.

(2) The originals of documents delivered to the Registrar in printed form shall be kept by him for 10 years, after which they may be destroyed.

Fees.

426.(1) The fees shown in the table set out in Schedule 24 shall be payable to the Registrar in addition to any other fee which the Registrar may specify for his performance of any function under this Act, including the receipt by him of any notice or other document which under this Act is required to be given, delivered, sent or forwarded to him.

(2) Where a notice or document which under this Act is required to be given, delivered, sent or forwarded to the Registrar or lodged with the Registrar within a specified time is—

- (a) given, delivered, sent or forwarded to the Registrar or lodged with him outside the specified time; or
- (b) substituted by a notice or document outside the specified time, the supplementary fee specified in subsection (4) in respect of that late or substituted notice or document shall be payable, in addition to the fee due at the date the late or substituted document is delivered, sent or forwarded to the Registrar or lodged with him as provided from time to time in the Table set out in Schedule 24 in respect of that notice or document.

(3) The Registrar may charge a fee for any services provided by him otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation imposed on him by law.

(4) The supplementary fees referred to in subsection (2) are—

- (a) in respect of lodging an Annual Return with the Registrar after the due date for lodging of that Annual Return or lodging a substitute Annual Return after the due date for lodging of that Annual Return—
 - (i) in the first year after the due date, £30.00,
 - (ii) in the second year after the due date, £60.00,

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the Minister may by regulations prescribe or amend any fee stated to be payable to the Registrar pursuant to this Act.

Inspection, production and evidence of documents kept by Registrar.

427.(1) Any person may inspect any records kept by the Registrar for the purposes of this Act and may require—

- (a) a copy in such form as the Registrar considers appropriate of any information contained in those records; or
- (b) a certified copy of, or extract from any such record.

(2) The right of inspection extends to the originals of documents delivered to the Registrar in printed form only where the record kept by the Registrar of the contents of the document is illegible or unavailable.

(3) In all legal proceedings, a copy of an extract from a record certified in writing by the Registrar to be an accurate record of the contents of any document delivered to him under this Act, shall be admissible in evidence—

- (a) as of equal validity with the original document; and
- (b) as evidence of any facts stated in it of which direct oral evidence would be admissible, and, for this purpose, it shall not be necessary to prove the official position of the Registrar.

(4) Copies of or extracts from records furnished by the Registrar, instead of being certified by him in writing to be an accurate record, may be sealed with his official seal.

(5) Any person may require a certificate of the incorporation of a company, signed by the Registrar or authenticated by his official seal.

(6) Any requirement of the Act as to the supply by the Registrar of a document may, if the Registrar thinks fit, be satisfied by the communication by the Registrar of the requisite information in any non-printed form provided for by Schedule 7 for the purposes of this section or approved by him; and if, in such a case, the document concerned is required to be signed by him or sealed with his official seal, it shall instead be authenticated as may be provided for in Schedule 7, in section 428 or approved by the Registrar.

(7) No process for compelling the production of a record by the Registrar shall issue from any court except with the leave of the court, and any such process shall bear on it a statement that it is issued with the leave of the court.

the Registrar's certificate that the copy is an accurate record of the contents of the original document shall be provided in accordance with subsections (2) and (3).

(2) The certificate shall be authenticated by means of an electronic signature which—

- (a) is uniquely linked to the Registrar;
- (b) indicates that the Registrar has caused it to be applied;
- (c) is created using means that the Registrar can maintain under his sole control; and

- (d) is linked to the certificate and to the copy provided under section 427 in such a manner that any subsequent change of the data comprised in either is detectable.

(3) For the purposes of this section, an “electronic signature” means data in electronic form which is attached to or logically associated with other electronic data and which serve as a method of authentication.

429.(1) Where a company—

- (a) has made default in complying with any provision of this Act which requires it to file with, deliver or send to the Registrar any return, account or other document, or to give notice to him of any matter, and
- (b) fails to make good the default within 14 days after the service of a notice on the company requiring it to do so, then, on an application made to the court by any member or creditor of the company or by the Registrar, the court may make an order directing the company and any officer of it to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order.

(2) The order of the court may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application shall be borne by the company or by any officers of the company responsible for the default.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the operation of any enactment imposing penalties on a company or its officers in respect of any such default.

Official notification.

430.(1) The Registrar shall cause to be published in the Gazette notice of the issue or receipt by him of documents of any of the following descriptions (stating in the notice the name of the company, the description of the document and the date of issue or receipt), that is to say—if the event had not been officially notified at the material time and is not shown by the company to have been known at that time to the person concerned, or if the material time fell on or before the 15th day after the date of official notification (or, where the 15th day was a non-business day, on or before the next day that was not) and it is shown that the person concerned was unavoidably prevented from knowing of the event at that time.

(2) The Registrar shall allocate to every branch registered by him under this section a number, which shall be known as the branch's registered number.

(3) Branches' registered numbers shall be in such form, consisting of one or more sequences of figures or letters, as the Registrar may from time to time determine.

(4) The Registrar may, upon adopting a new form of registered number, make such changes of existing registered numbers as appear to him necessary.

(5) A change of a branch's registered number has effect from the date on which the company is notified by the Registrar of the change, but for a period of 3 years beginning with the date on which that notification is sent by the Registrar the requirement of section 456(1) as to the use of the branch's registered number on business letters and order forms is satisfied by the use of either the old number or the new.

- (a) adopting particulars already filed in respect of another branch; or
- (b) including in one document particulars which relate to two or more branches,

Section 91

VALUATION PROVISIONS

PART I

1. The valuation and report required by section 91 shall be made by an independent person, that is to say a person qualified at the time of the report to be appointed, or continue to be, an auditor of the company.

2. However, where it appears to the independent person (in this Schedule referred to as “the valuer”) to be reasonable for the valuation of the consideration, or part of it, to be made (or for him to accept such a valuation) by another person who—

- (a) appears to him to have the requisite knowledge and experience to value the consideration or that part of it; and
- (b) is not an officer or employee of the company or any other corporate body which is that company’s subsidiary or holding company or a subsidiary of that company’s holding company or a partner or employee of such an officer or employee, he may arrange for or accept such a valuation, together with a report which will enable him to make his own report under this Part and provide the note required by paragraph 6.

3. The reference in paragraph 2(b) to an officer or employee does not include an auditor.

4. The valuer’s report shall state—

- (a) the nominal value of the shares to be wholly or partly paid for by the consideration in question;
- (b) the amount of any premium payable on the shares;
- (c) the description of the consideration and, as respects so much of the consideration as he himself has valued, a description of that part of the consideration, the method used to value it and the date of the valuation; and
- (d) the extent to which the nominal value of the shares and any premium are to be treated as paid up—
 - (i) by the consideration, and

- (ii) in cash.
5. Where the consideration or part of it is valued by a person other than the valuer himself, the latter's report shall state that fact and also—
- (a) state the former's name and what knowledge and experience he has to carry out the valuation; and
 - (b) describe so much of the consideration as was valued by the other person, and the method used to value it, and specify the date of the valuation.
6. The valuer's report shall contain or be accompanied by a note by him—
- (a) in the case of a valuation made by a person other than himself, that it appeared to himself reasonable to arrange for it to be so made or to accept a valuation so made;
 - (b) whoever made the valuation, that the method of valuation was reasonable in all the circumstances;
 - (c) that it appears to the valuer that there has been no material change in the value of the consideration in question since the valuation; and
 - (d) that on the basis of the valuation the value of the consideration, together with any cash by which the nominal value of the shares or any premium payable on them is to be paid up, is not less than so much of the total of the nominal value and the whole of any such premium as is treated as paid up by the consideration and any such cash.
7. Where the consideration to be valued is accepted partly in payment up of the nominal value of the shares and any premium and partly for some other consideration given by the company, section 91 and the above provisions of this Part apply as if references to the consideration accepted by the company included the proportion of that consideration, which is properly attributable to the payment up of that value and any premium and—
- (a) the valuer shall carry out, or arrange for, such other valuations as will enable him to determine that proportion; and
 - (b) his report shall state what valuations have been made under this paragraph and also the reason for, and method and date of any such valuation and any other matters which may be relevant to that determination.

PART II

8. Paragraphs 1 to 3 and 5 apply to the valuation and report for the purposes of section 93.

9. The valuer's report for those purposes shall—

- (a) state the consideration to be received by the company, describing the asset in question (specifying the amount to be received in cash) and the consideration to be given by the company (specifying the amount to be given in cash);
- (b) state the method and date of valuation;
- (c) contain or be accompanied by a note as to the matters mentioned in paragraph 6(a) to (c); and
- (d) contain or be accompanied by a note that on the basis of the valuation the value of the consideration to be received by the company is not less than the value of the consideration to be given by it.

10. A reference in section 93 or this Part to consideration given for the transfer of an asset includes consideration given partly for its transfer; but—

- (a) the value of any consideration partly so given shall be taken as the proportion of the consideration properly attributable to its transfer;
- (b) the valuer shall carry out or arrange for such valuations of anything else as will enable him to determine that proportion; and
- (c) his report for the purposes of section 93 shall state what valuation has been made under this paragraph and also the reason for, and method and date of, any such valuation and any other matters which may be relevant to that determination.

PART III

ENTITLEMENT OF VALUER TO FULL DISCLOSURE

11. A person carrying out a valuation or making a report under section 91 or 93, with respect to any consideration proposed to be accepted or given by a company, is entitled to require from the officers of the company such information and explanation as he thinks necessary to enable him to carry out the valuation or make the report and provide a note under paragraph 6 of Part I or (as the case may be) paragraph 2(c) of Part II.

12. A person who knowingly or recklessly makes a statement which—

- (a) is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular; and

1.(1) The Minister may appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate the affairs of a company and to report on them in such manner as he may direct.

(2) The appointment may be made—

- (a) in the case of a company having a share capital, on the application either of not less than 200 members or of members holding not less than one-tenth of the shares issued;
- (b) in the case of a company not having a share capital, on the application of not less than one-fifth in number of the persons on the company's register of members; and
- (c) in any case, on application of the company.

(3) The application shall be supported by such evidence as the Minister may require for the purpose of showing that the applicant or applicants have good reason for requiring the investigation.

(4) The Minister may, before appointing inspectors, require the applicant or applicants to give security, to such amount as he may by order specify, for payment of the costs of the investigation.

(5) The Minister may at any time terminate the appointment of the inspectors.

Other company investigations.

2.(1) The Minister shall appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate the affairs of a company and report on them in such manner as he directs, if the court by order declares that its affairs ought to be so investigated.

(2) The Minister may make such an appointment if it appears to him that there are circumstances suggesting—

- (a) that the company's affairs are being or have been conducted with intent to defraud its creditors or the creditors of any other person, or otherwise for a fraudulent or unlawful purpose, or in a manner which is unfairly prejudicial to some part of its members; or
- (b) that any actual or proposed act or omission of the company (including an act or omission on its behalf) is or would be so prejudicial, or that the company was formed for any fraudulent or unlawful purpose; or

(3) Subparagraphs (1) and (2) are without prejudice to the powers of the Minister under paragraph 1; and the power conferred by subparagraph (2) is exercisable with respect to a corporate body notwithstanding that it is in the course of being voluntarily wound up.

(4) The reference in subparagraph (2) (a) to a company's members includes any person who is not a member but to whom shares in the company have been transferred or transmitted by operation of law.

Inspectors' powers during investigation.

3.(1) If inspectors appointed under paragraph 1 or 2 to investigate the affairs of a company think it necessary for the purposes of their investigation to investigate also the affairs of another corporate body which is or at any relevant time has been the company's subsidiary or holding company, or a subsidiary of its holding company or a holding company of its subsidiary, they have power to do so; and they shall report on the affairs of the other corporate body so far as they think that the results of their investigation of its affairs are relevant to the investigation of the affairs of the company first mentioned above.

(2) Inspectors appointed under either paragraph may at any time in the course of their investigation, without the necessity of making an interim report, inform the Minister of matters coming to their knowledge as a result of the investigation tending to show that an offence has been committed.

Production of documents and evidence to inspectors.

4.(1) When inspectors are appointed under paragraph 1 or 2, it is the duty of all officers and agents of the company, and of all officers and agents of any other corporate body whose affairs are investigated under paragraph 3(1)–

- (a) to produce to the inspectors all books and documents of or relating to the company or, as the case may be, the other corporate body which are in their custody or power;
- (b) to attend before the inspectors when required to do so; and
- (c) otherwise to give the inspectors all assistance in connection with the investigation which they are reasonably able to give.

(2) If the inspectors consider that a person other than an officer or agent of the company or other corporate body is or may be in possession of information concerning its affairs, they may require that person to produce to them any books or documents in his custody or power relating to the company or other corporate body, to attend before them and otherwise to give them all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give; and it is that person's duty to comply with the requirement.

(3) An inspector may examine on oath the officers and agents of the company or other corporate body, and any such person as is mentioned in subparagraph (2), in relation to the affairs of the company or other body, and may administer an oath accordingly.

(4) In this paragraph a reference to officers or to agents includes past, as well as present, officers or agents (as the case may be); and "agents", in relation to a company or other corporate body, includes its bankers and solicitors and persons employed by it as auditors, whether these persons are or are not officers of the company or other corporate body.

(5) An answer given by a person to a question put to him in exercise of powers conferred by this paragraph (whether as it has effect in relation to an investigation under any of paragraphs 1 to 3, or as applied by any other paragraph in this Schedule) may be used in evidence against him.

Power of inspector to call for directors' bank accounts.

5. If an inspector has reasonable grounds for believing that a director, or past director, of the company or other corporate body whose affairs he is investigating maintains or has maintained a bank account of any description (whether alone or jointly with another person and whether in Gibraltar or elsewhere), into or out of which there has been paid—

- (a) the emoluments or part of the emoluments of his office as director, particulars of which have not been disclosed to the shareholders of the company or other corporate body; or
- (b) any money which has resulted from or been used in the financing of any transaction, arrangement or agreement, entered into by the company or other corporate body and which has not been recorded in the annual accounts; or
- (c) any money which has been in any way connected with an act or omission, or series of acts or omissions, which on the part of that director constituted misconduct (whether fraudulent or not) towards the company or corporate body or its members, the inspector may require the director to produce to him all documents in the director's possession, or under his control, relating to that bank account.

Obstruction of inspectors treated as contempt of court.

6.(1) When inspectors are appointed under paragraph 1 or 2 to investigate the affairs of a company, the following applies in the case of—

- (a) any officer or agent of the company;
- (b) any officer or agent of another corporate body whose affairs are investigated under paragraph 3;
- (c) any such person as is mentioned in paragraph 4(2).

(2) Paragraph 4(4) applies with regard to references in subparagraph (1) to an officer or agent.

(3) If that person—

- (a) refuses to produce any book or document which it is his duty under paragraph 4 or 5 to produce; or
- (b) refuses to attend before the inspectors when required to do so; or
- (c) refuses to answer any question put to him by the inspectors with respect to the affairs of the company or other corporate body (as the case may be), the inspectors may certify the refusal in writing to the court.

(4) The court may then enquire into the case; and after hearing any witnesses who may be produced against or on behalf of the alleged offender and after hearing any statement which may be offered in defence, the court may punish the offender in like manner as if he had been guilty of contempt of the court.

Inspectors' reports.

7.(1) The inspectors may, and if so directed by the Minister shall, make interim reports to the Minister, and on the conclusion of their investigation shall make a final report to him, and shall forward a copy of every such report to the Attorney-General. Any such report shall be written or printed, as the Minister directs.

(2) If the inspectors were appointed under paragraph 2 in pursuance of an order of the court, the Minister shall furnish a copy of any report of theirs to the court.

(3) In any case the Minister may, if he thinks fit—

- (a) forward a copy of any report made by the inspectors to the company's registered office;
- (b) furnish a copy on request and on payment of the prescribed fee to—

 - (ii) any person whose conduct is referred to in the report,
 - (iii) the auditors of that company or corporate body,

- (c) cause any such report to be printed and published.

(4) The Minister may require former inspectors whose appointments have been terminated, to provide information which may assist the inspectors in preparing their report.

Power to bring civil proceedings on company's behalf.

8.(1) If, from any report made under paragraph 7 or from information or documents obtained under paragraph 15 or 16 below, it appears to the Attorney-General that any civil proceedings ought in the public interest to be brought by any corporate body, he may himself bring such proceedings in the name and on behalf of the corporate body.

(2) The Attorney-General shall indemnify the corporate body against any costs or expenses incurred by it in or in connection with proceedings brought under this paragraph.

Expenses of investigating a company's affairs.

9.(1) The expenses of and incidental to an investigation by inspectors appointed by the Minister shall, in the first instance, be a charge to the Consolidated Fund; but shall be recoverable from the persons mentioned in the following 4 subparagraphs, to the extent there specified.

(2) A person who is convicted on a prosecution instituted as a result of the investigation, or is ordered to pay the whole or any part of the costs of proceedings brought under paragraph 8, may in the same proceedings be ordered to pay those expenses to such extent as may be specified in the order.

(3) A corporate body in whose name proceedings are brought under that paragraph is liable to repay to the Consolidated Fund the amount or value of any sums or property recovered by it as a result of those proceedings; and any amount for which a corporate body is liable under this subparagraph is a first charge on the sums or property recovered.

(4) A corporate body dealt with by the inspectors' report, where the inspectors were appointed otherwise than of the Minister's own motion, is liable except where it was the applicant for the investigation to repay to the Consolidated Fund the full amount of those expenses except so far as the Minister otherwise directs.

(5) The applicant or applicants for the investigation, where the inspectors were appointed under paragraph 1, is or are liable to repay to the Consolidated Fund the full amount of those expenses except so far as the Minister otherwise directs.

(6) The report of inspectors appointed otherwise than of the Minister's own motion may, if they think fit, and shall if the Minister so directs, include a recommendation as to the directions (if any) which they think appropriate, in the light of their investigation, to be given under subparagraph (4) or (5) above.

(7) For purposes of this paragraph, any costs or expenses charged to the Consolidated Fund in or in connection with proceedings brought under paragraph 8 (including expenses incurred under subparagraph (2) of it) are to be treated as expenses of the investigation giving rise to the proceedings.

(8) Any liability to repay to the Consolidated Fund imposed by subparagraphs (2) and (3) above is (subject to satisfaction of his right to repayment) a liability also to indemnify all persons against liability under subparagraphs (4) and (5); and any such liability imposed by subparagraph (2) is (subject as mentioned above) a liability also to indemnify all persons against liability under subparagraph (3).

(9) A person liable under any one of those subparagraphs is entitled to contribution from any other person liable under the same subparagraph, according to the amount of their respective liabilities under it.

Power of the Minister to present winding-up petition.

10. If in the case of a corporate body liable to be wound up under this Act it appears to the Minister from a report made by inspectors under paragraph 7, or from information or documents obtained under paragraphs 15 or 16 below, that it is expedient in the public interest that the body should be wound up, he may (unless the body is already being wound up by the court) present a petition for it to be so wound up if the court thinks it just and equitable for it to be so.

Inspectors' report to be evidence.

11.(1) A copy of any report of inspectors appointed under paragraph 1 or 2, certified by the Minister to be a true copy, is admissible in any legal proceedings as evidence of the opinion of the inspectors in relation to any matter contained in the report.

(2) A document purporting to be such a certificate as is mentioned above shall be received in evidence and be deemed to be such a certificate, unless the contrary is proved.

Other powers of investigation available to the Minister

Power to investigate company ownership.

12.(1) Where it appears to the Minister that there is good reason to do so, he may appoint one or more competent inspectors to investigate and report on the membership of any company, and otherwise with respect to the company, for the purpose of determining the true persons who are or have been financially interested in the success or failure (real or apparent) of the company or able to control or materially to influence its policy.

(2) The appointment of inspectors under this paragraph may define the scope of their investigation (whether as respects the matter or the period to which it is to extend or otherwise) and in particular may limit the investigation to matters connected with particular shares or debentures.

(3) If an application for an investigation under this paragraph with respect to particular shares or debentures of a company is made to the Minister by members of the company, and the number of applicants or the amount of the shares held by them is not less than that required for an application for the appointment of inspectors under paragraph 1(2) (a) and (b)–

- (a) the Minister shall appoint inspectors to conduct the investigation (unless he is satisfied that the application is vexatious); and
- (b) the inspectors' appointment shall not exclude from the scope of their investigation any matter which the application seeks to have included, except in so far as the Minister is satisfied that it is unreasonable for that matter to be investigated.

(4) Subject to the terms of their appointment, the inspectors' powers extend to the investigation of any circumstances suggesting the existence of an arrangement or understanding which, though not legally binding, is or was observed or likely to be observed in practice and which is relevant to the purposes of the investigation.

Provisions applicable on investigation under paragraph 12.

13.(1) For the purposes of an investigation under paragraph 12, paragraphs 3(1), 4, 6 and 7 apply with the necessary modifications of references to the affairs of the company or to those of any other corporate body, subject however to the following subparagraphs.

(2) Those paragraphs apply to–

- (a) all persons who are or have been, or whom the inspector has reasonable cause to believe to be or have been, financially interested in the success or failure or the apparent success or failure of the company or any other corporate body whose membership is investigated with that of the company, or able to control or materially influence its policy (including persons concerned only on behalf of others); and
- (b) any other person whom the inspector has reasonable cause to believe possesses information relevant to the investigation, as they apply in relation to officers and agents of the company or the other corporate body (as the case may be).

(3) If the Minister is of the opinion that there is good reason for not divulging any part of a report made by virtue of paragraph 12 and this paragraph, he may under paragraph 7 disclose the report with the omission of that part; and he may cause to be kept by the Registrar a copy of the report with that part omitted or, in the case of any other such report, a copy of the whole report.

(4) The expenses of an investigation under paragraph 12 shall be defrayed by the Consolidated Fund.

Power to obtain information as to those interested in shares, etc.

14.(1) If it appears to the Minister that there is good reason to investigate the ownership of any shares in or debentures of a company and that it is unnecessary to appoint inspectors for the purpose, he may require any person whom he has reasonable cause to believe to have or to be able to obtain any information as to the present and past interests in those shares or debentures and the names and addresses of the persons interested and of any persons who act or have acted on their behalf in relation to the shares or debentures to give any such information to the Minister.

(2) For this purpose a person is deemed to have an interest in shares or debentures if he has any right to acquire or dispose of them or of any interest in them, or to vote in respect of them, or if his consent is necessary for the exercise of any of the rights of other persons interested in them, or if other persons interested in them can be required, or are accustomed, to exercise their rights in accordance with his instructions.

(3) A person who fails to give information required of him under this paragraph, or who in giving such information makes any statement which he knows to be false in a material particular, or recklessly makes any statement which is false in a material particular, shall be liable to imprisonment for 5 years and a fine.

(2) The Minister may at any time, if he thinks there is good reason to do so, give directions to any body requiring it, at a time and place as may be specified in the directions, to produce such books or papers as may be so specified.

(3) The Minister may at any time, if he thinks there is good reason to do so, authorise a public officer to require any such body to produce to him (the officer) at once any books or papers which the officer may specify, provided that such officer shall, if required by such a body, produce evidence of his authority.

(4) Where by virtue of subparagraph (2) or (3) the Minister or public officer has power to require the production of books or papers from any body, he or the officer has the like power to require production of those books or papers from any person who appears to him or the officer to be in possession of them; but where that person claims a lien on books or papers produced by him, the production is without prejudice to the lien.

(5) The power under this paragraph to require a body or other person to produce books or papers includes power—

- (a) if the books or papers are produced—
 - (i) to take copies of them or extracts from them, and
 - (ii) to require that person, or any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is or was at any time employed by, the body in question, to provide an explanation of any of them;
- (b) if the books or papers are not produced, to require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.

(6) If the requirement to produce books or papers or provide an explanation or make a statement is not complied with, the body or other person on whom the requirement was so imposed shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine.

(7) However, where a person is charged with an offence under subparagraph (6) in respect of a requirement to produce any books or papers, it is a defence to prove that they were not in his possession or under his control and that it was not reasonably practicable for him to comply with the requirement.

(8) A statement made by a person in compliance with such a requirement may be used in evidence against him.

Entry and search of premises.

16.(1) The following applies if a justice of the peace is satisfied on information on oath laid by a public officer authorised under paragraph 15(3), that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there are on any premises any books or papers of which production has been required under paragraph 15 and which have not been produced in compliance with that requirement.

(2) The justice may issue a warrant authorising any police officer, together with any other persons named in the warrant and any other police officers, to enter the premises specified in the information (using such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose) and to search the premises and take possession of any books or papers appearing to be such books or papers as are mentioned above, or to take, in relation to any books or papers so appearing, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them and preventing interference with them.

(3) A warrant so issued continues in force until the end of 1 month after the date on which it is issued.

(4) Any books or papers of which possession is taken under this paragraph may be retained—

- (a) for a period of 3 months; or
- (b) if within that period any criminal proceedings such as are mentioned in paragraph 17 (1)(a) are begun (being proceedings to which the books or papers are relevant), until the conclusion of those proceedings.

(5) A person who obstructs the exercise of a right of entry or search conferred by a warrant issued under this paragraph, or who obstructs the exercise of a right so conferred to take possession of any books or papers, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine.

Provision for security of information obtained.

17.(1) No information or document relating to a body which has been obtained under paragraph 15 or 16 shall, without the previous consent in writing of that body, be published or disclosed, except to a competent authority, unless the publication or disclosure is required—

19. A person who, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed under paragraph 15 to provide an explanation or make a statement, provides or makes an explanation or statement which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly provides or makes an explanation or statement which is so false, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment for 10 years and a fine.

Supplementary

Privileged information.

20.(1) Nothing in paragraphs 1 to 14 requires the disclosure to the Minister or to an inspector appointed by him—

At the balance sheet date, a provision must represent the best estimate of the expenses likely to be incurred or, in the case of a liability, of the amount required to meet that liability.

SCHEDULE 15

Section 245

AMOUNTS TO BE INCLUDED IN RESPECT OF ITEMS SHOWN IN COMPANY ACCOUNTS.*SECTION A - HISTORICAL COST ACCOUNTING RULES

Subject to sections B and C, the amounts to be included in respect of all items shown in the company's accounts shall be determined in accordance with rules set out in paragraphs 1 to 15.

*Fixed assetsGeneral rules.

1. Subject to any provision for depreciation or diminution in value made in accordance with paragraph 2 or 3 the amount to be included in respect of any fixed asset must be its purchase price or production cost.

2. In the case of any fixed asset which has a limited useful economic life, the amount of—

- (a) its purchase price or production cost; or
- (b) where it is estimated that the asset will have a residual value at the end of the period of its useful economic life, its purchase price or production cost less that estimated residual value, must be reduced by provisions for depreciation calculated to write off that amount systematically over the period of the asset's useful economic life.

3.(1) Where a fixed asset investment of a description falling to be included under item B.III of any of the balance sheet formats set out in Schedule 11 has diminished in value, provisions for diminution in value may be made in respect of it and the amount to be included in respect of it may be reduced accordingly; and those provisions must be charged to the profit and loss account and disclosed separately in a note to the accounts if not shown separately in the profit and loss account.

(2) Provisions for diminution in value must be made in respect of any fixed asset which has diminished in value if the reduction in its value is expected to be permanent (whether its useful economic life is limited or not), and the amount to be included in respect of it will be reduced accordingly; and those provisions must be charged to the profit and loss account and disclosed separately in a note to the accounts if not shown separately in the profit and loss account.

(3) Where the reasons for which any provision was made in accordance with subparagraph (1) or (2) have ceased to apply to any extent, that provision will be written back to the extent that it is no longer necessary; and any amounts written back under this subparagraph must be recognized in the profit and loss account and disclosed separately in a note to the accounts if not shown separately in the profit and loss account.

(4) Subparagraph (3) shall not apply to value adjustments made in respect of goodwill.

Development Costs.

4.(1) Where this is in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or practice, development costs may be included in “other tangible assets” under “fixed assets” in the balance sheet formats set out in Schedule 11.

(2) If any amount is included in a company’s balance sheet in respect of development costs, the note on accounting policies must include the following information—

- (a) the period over which the amount of those costs originally capitalized is being or is to be written off, and
- (b) the reasons for capitalizing the development costs in question.

(3) If any amount is included in a company’s balance sheet under “Assets” in respect of development costs, and insofar as development costs have not been completely written off, no distribution of profits may take place unless the amount of the reserves available for distribution and profits brought forward is at least equal to that of the cost not written off.

Intangible Assets.

5.(1) Intangible assets must be written off over the useful economic life of the intangible asset.

(2) Where in exceptional cases the useful life of intangible assets cannot be reliably estimated, such assets must be written off over a period chosen by the directors of the company.

(3) The period referred to in subparagraph (2) must not exceed 10 years.

(4) There must be disclosed in a note to the accounts the period referred to in subparagraph (2) and the reasons for choosing that period.

Formation expenses.

6.(1) Formation expenses included under “Assets” must be written off within a maximum period of 5 years.

(2) Insofar as formation expenses have not been completely written off, no distribution of profits can take place unless the amount of the reserves available for distribution and profits brought forward is at least equal to that of the expenses not written off.

Current assets.

7. Subject to paragraph 8, the amount to be included in respect of any current asset will be its purchase price or production cost.

8.(1) If the net realisable value of any current asset is lower than its purchase price or production cost the amount to be included in respect of that asset will be the net realisable value.

(2) Where the reasons for which any provision for diminution in value was made in accordance with subparagraph (1) have ceased to apply to any extent, that provision will be written back to the extent that it is no longer necessary.

*Miscellaneous and supplementary provisionsExcess of money owed over value received as an asset item.

9.(1) Where the amount repayable on any debt owed by a company is greater than the value of the consideration received in the transaction giving rise to the debt, the amount of the difference may be regarded as an asset.

(2) Where any amount is regarded as an asset in accordance with subparagraph (1)–

- (a) it shall be written off by reasonable amounts each year and must be completely written off before repayment of the debt; and
- (b) if the current amount is not shown as a separate item in the company’s balance sheet it must be disclosed in a note to the accounts.

10. Deleted

Determination of purchase price or production cost.

11.(1) The purchase price of an asset shall be determined by adding to the actual price paid any expenses incidental to its acquisition minus any incidental reductions in the cost of acquisition.

(2) The production cost of an asset shall be determined by adding to the purchase price of the raw materials and consumables used the amount of the costs incurred by the company which are directly attributable to the production of that asset.

(3) In addition, there may be included in the production cost of an asset—

- (a) a reasonable proportion of the costs incurred by the company which are only indirectly attributable to the production of that asset, but only to the extent that they relate to the period of production; and
- (b) interest on capital borrowed to finance the production of that asset, to the extent that it accrues in respect of the period of production, but in a case within (b) the inclusion of the interest in determining the cost of that asset and the amount of the interest so included must be disclosed in a note to the accounts.

(4) Distribution costs may not be included in production costs.

Stocks

12. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2), the purchase price or production cost of—

- (a) any assets which fall to be included under any item shown in a company's balance sheet under the general item "stocks"; and may be determined by the application of any of the methods mentioned in subparagraph (3) below in relation to any such assets of the same class.
- (b) any assets which are fungible assets (including investments),

(2) The method chosen must be one which appears to the directors to be appropriate in the circumstances of the company.

(3) Those methods are—

- (a) the method known as "first in, first out" (FIFO);
- (b) the method known as "last in, first out" (LIFO);

- (c) a weighted average price; and
- (d) any other method reflecting generally accepted best practice.

(4) Deleted

(5) Subject to subparagraph (6), for the purposes of subparagraph (4)(b), the relevant alternative amount, in relation to any item shown in a company's balance sheet, is the amount which would have been shown in respect of that item if assets of any class included under that item at an amount determined by any method permitted by this paragraph had instead been included at their replacement cost as at the balance sheet date.

(6) The relevant alternative amount may be determined by reference to the most recent actual purchase price or production cost before the balance sheet date of assets of any class included under the item in question instead of by reference to their replacement cost as at that date, but only if the former appears to the directors of the company to constitute the more appropriate standard of comparison in the case of assets of that class.

(7) For the purposes of this paragraph, assets of any description shall be regarded as fungible if assets of that description are substantially indistinguishable one from another.

Substitution of original stated amount where price or cost unknown.

13. Where there is no record of the purchase price or production cost of any asset of a company or of any price, expenses or costs relevant for determining its purchase price or production cost in accordance with paragraph 11, or any such record cannot be obtained without unreasonable expense or delay, its purchase price or production cost shall be taken for the purposes of paragraphs 1 to 8 to be the value given to it in the earliest available record of its value made on or after its acquisition or production by the company.

13A.(1) Participating interests may be accounted for using the equity method.

- (2) If participating interests are accounted for using the equity method—
 - (a) the proportion of profit or loss attributable to a participating interest and recognized in the profit and loss account may be that proportion which corresponds to the amount of any dividends, and
 - (b) where the profit attributable to a participating interest and recognized in the profit and loss account exceeds the amount of any dividends, the difference must be placed in a reserve which cannot be distributed to shareholders.

(3) The reference to “dividends” in subparagraph (2) includes dividends already paid to those whose payment can be claimed.

14. Value adjustments comprise all adjustments intended to take account of changes in the values of individual assets established at the balance sheet date whether that change is final or not.

15.(1) Whether particular assets are to be shown as fixed assets or current assets depends upon the purpose for which they are intended.

(2) Fixed assets comprise those assets which are intended for use on a continuing basis for the purposes of the undertaking’s activities.

(3) The following information must be given in the notes to the accounts for the various fixed asset items–

- (a) the purchase price or production cost or, where an alternative basis of measurement has been followed, the fair value or revalued amount at the beginning and end of the financial year;
- (b) additions, disposals and transfers during the financial year;
- (c) the accumulated value adjustments at the beginning and end of the financial year;
- (d) value adjustments charged during the year;
- (e) movements in accumulated value adjustments in respect of additions, disposals and transfers during the financial year; and
- (f) where interest is capitalized in accordance with paragraph 11(3)(b) above, the amount capitalized during the financial year.

SECTION B– ALTERNATIVE ACCOUNTING RULES

Preliminary.

16. The rules set out in Section A are referred to in this Schedule as the historical cost accounting rules and the rules set out in Section B are referred to in this Schedule as the alternative accounting rules.

Alternative accounting rules.

17.(1) Intangible fixed assets, other than goodwill, may be included at their current cost.

(2) Tangible fixed assets may be included at a market value determined at the date of their last valuation or at their current cost.

(3) Fixed asset investments of any description may be included either—

- (a) at a market value determined as at the date of their last valuation; or
- (b) at a value determined on a basis which appears to the directors to be appropriate in the circumstances of the company, but in the latter case particulars of the method of valuation adopted and of the reasons for adopting it must be disclosed in a note to the accounts.

(4) Deleted

(5) Deleted

Application of the depreciation rules.

18.(1) Where the value of any asset of a company is determined on a basis mentioned in paragraph 17 that value will be, or (as the case may require) will be the starting point for determining, the amount to be included in respect of that asset in the company's accounts, instead of its purchase price or production cost or any value previously so determined for that asset; and the depreciation rules apply accordingly in relation to any such asset with the substitution for any reference to its purchase price or production cost of a reference to the value most recently determined for that asset on any basis mentioned in paragraph 17.

(2) The amount of any provision for depreciation required in the case of any fixed asset by paragraph 2 or 3 as it applies by virtue of subparagraph (1) is referred to in this paragraph as the adjusted amount, and the amount of any provision which would be required by that paragraph in the case of that asset according to the historical cost accounting rules is referred to as the historical cost amount.

(3) Where subparagraph (1) applies in the case of any fixed asset the amount of any provision for depreciation in respect of that asset—

- (a) included in any item shown in the profit and loss account in respect of amounts written off assets of the description in question; or
- (b) taken into account in stating any item so shown which is required to be disclosed by note (19) of the notes on the profit and loss account formats set out in Schedule 12 to be stated after taking into account any necessary provisions for depreciation or diminution in value of assets included under it, may be the historical cost amount instead of the adjusted amount on the condition that the amount of any difference between the two is shown separately in the profit and loss account or in a note to the accounts.

Additional information to be provided in case of departure from historical cost accounting rules.

19.(1) This paragraph applies where the amounts to be included in respect of assets covered by any items shown in a company's accounts have been determined on any basis mentioned in paragraph 17.

(2) The items affected, and the basis of valuation adopted in determining the amounts of the assets in question in the case of each such item must be disclosed in a note on accounting policies.

(3) In the case of each balance sheet item affected, the comparable amounts determined according to the historical cost accounting rules must be shown in a note to the accounts.

(4) In subparagraph (3), references in relation to any item to the comparable amounts determined as there mentioned are references to—

- (a) the total amount which would be required to be shown in respect of that item if the amounts to be included in respect of all the assets covered by that item were determined according to the historical cost accounting rules; and
- (b) the total amount of the cumulative provisions for depreciation or diminution in value which would be permitted or required in determining those amounts according to those rules.

Revaluation reserve.

20.(1) With respect to any determination of the value of an asset of a company on any basis mentioned in paragraph 17, the amount of any profit or loss arising from that determination (after allowing, where appropriate, for any provisions for depreciation or diminution in value made otherwise than by reference to the value so determined and any adjustments of any such provisions made in the light of that determination) shall be credited or (as the case may be) debited to a separate reserve (“the revaluation reserve”).

(2) The amount of the revaluation reserve shall be shown in the company’s balance sheet under a separate sub-heading in the position given for the item “revaluation reserve” under Capital and Reserves in Format 1 or 2 of the balance sheet formats set out in Schedule 11.

(3) An amount may be transferred from the revaluation reserve–

- (a) to the profit and loss account, if the amount was previously charged to that account or represents realised profit; or
- (b) on capitalisation, and the revaluation reserve shall be reduced to the extent that the amounts transferred to it are no longer necessary for the purposes of the valuation method used.

(4) In subparagraph (3)(b) “capitalisation”, in relation to an amount standing to the credit of the revaluation reserve, means applying it in wholly or partly paying up unissued shares in the company to be allotted to members of the company as fully or partly paid up shares.

(5) The revaluation reserve may not be reduced except as mentioned in this paragraph.

(6) The treatment for taxation purposes of amounts credited or debited to the revaluation reserve must be disclosed in a note to the accounts.

Special provisions where the company is an investment company.

21.(1) Paragraph 20 does not apply to the amount of any profit or loss arising from a determination of the value of any investments of an investment company on any basis mentioned in paragraph 17(3).

(2) Any provisions made by virtue of paragraph 3(1) or (2) in the case of an investment company in respect of any fixed assets investments need not be charged to the profit and loss account provided they are either–

- (a) charged against any reserve account to which any account excluded by subparagraph (1) from the requirements of paragraph 20 has been credited; or
- (b) shown as a separate item in the company’s balance sheet under the sub-heading “other reserves”.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph, as it applies in relation to any company, “fixed asset investment” means any asset falling to be included under any item shown in the company’s balance sheet under the subdivision ‘investments’ under the general item ‘fixed assets’.

Inclusion of financial instruments at fair value.

22.(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) to (4), financial instruments (including derivatives) may be included at fair value.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to financial instruments which constitute liabilities unless–

(4) If the fair value of a financial instrument cannot be determined reliably in accordance with paragraph 23, sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to that financial instrument.

(5) Financial instruments that, under international accounting standards adopted in accordance with the IAS Regulation, may be included in accounts at fair value, may be so included, provided that the disclosures required by such accounting standards are made.

(6) In this paragraph—

“associated undertaking” has the meaning given by paragraph 17 of Schedule 21; and “joint venture” has the meaning given by paragraph 16 of Schedule 21.

23.(1) The fair value of a financial instrument is determined in accordance with this paragraph.

(2) If a reliable market can readily be identified for the financial instrument, its fair value is determined by reference to its market value.

(3) If a reliable market cannot readily be identified for the financial instrument but can be identified for its components or for a similar instrument, its fair value is determined by reference to the market value of its components or of the similar instrument.

(4) If neither sub-paragraph (2) nor (3) applies, the fair value of the financial instrument is a value resulting from generally accepted valuation models and techniques.

(5) Any valuation models and techniques used for the purposes of subparagraph (4) must ensure a reasonable approximation of the market value.

(6) Financial instruments that cannot be measured reliably by any of the methods described in this paragraph shall, so far as possible, be included at purchase price or production cost.

Inclusion of hedged items at fair value.

24. A company may include any assets and liabilities that qualify as hedged items under a fair value hedge accounting system, or identified portions of such assets or liabilities, at the amount required under that system.

Other items that may be included at fair value.

Accounting for changes in value.

26.(1) This paragraph applies where a financial instrument is valued in accordance with paragraph 22 or 24 or an asset is valued in accordance with paragraph 25.

(2) Notwithstanding section 244, and subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below, a change in the value of the financial instrument or of the investment property or living animal or plant must be included in the profit and loss account.

(3) Where—

- (a) the financial instrument accounted for is a hedging instrument under a hedge accounting system that allows some or all of the change in value not to be shown in the profit and loss account; or
- (b) the change in value relates to an exchange difference arising on a monetary item that forms part of a company’s net investment in a foreign entity, the amount of the change in value must be credited to or (as the case may be) debited from a separate reserve (the “fair value reserve”).

(4) Where the instrument accounted for—

- (a) is an available for sale financial asset; and
- (b) is not a derivative,

the change in value may be credited to or (as the case may be) debited from the fair value reserve.

The fair value reserve.

27.(1) The fair value reserve must be adjusted to the extent that the amounts shown in it are no longer necessary for the purposes of paragraph 26(3) or (4).

(2) The treatment for taxation purposes of amounts credited or debited to the fair value reserve must be disclosed in a note to the accounts.

Interpretation of paragraphs 22 to 27.

28.(1) References to “derivatives” include commodity-based contracts that give either contracting party the right to settle in cash or in some other financial instrument, except when such contracts—

- (a) were entered into for the purpose of, and continue to meet, the company’s expected purchase, sale or usage requirements;
- (b) were designated for such purpose at their inception; and
- (c) are expected to be settled by delivery of the commodity.

(2) A “control contract” means a contract in writing conferring such a right which—

- (a) is of a kind authorised by the memorandum or articles of the undertaking in relation to which the right is exercisable; and

Section 282

FORM AND CONTENT OF GROUP ACCOUNTSGeneral rules.

1.(1) Group accounts must comply so far as practicable with the provisions of Schedules 11, 12, 15 and 16 as if the undertakings included in the consolidation (“the group”) were a single company.

(2) Where a company is a parent company or a subsidiary undertaking and any item required by Schedule 11 to be shown in the company’s balance sheet in relation to group undertakings includes–

- (a) amounts attributable to dealings with or interests in any parent undertaking or fellow subsidiary undertaking; or
- (b) amounts attributable to dealings with or interests in any subsidiary undertaking of the company, the total amounts within (a) and (b) respectively must be shown as separate items, either by way of sub-division of the relevant item or in a note to the company’s accounts.

(3) For the purposes of subparagraph (2) as it applies to group accounts–

- (a) any subsidiary undertakings of the parent company not included in the consolidation shall be regarded as subsidiary undertakings of the group; and
- (b) if the parent company is itself a subsidiary undertaking, the group shall be regarded as a subsidiary undertaking of any parent undertaking of that company, and the reference to fellow subsidiary undertakings shall be construed accordingly.

2.(1) The consolidated balance sheet and profit and loss account must incorporate in full the information contained in the individual accounts of the undertakings included in the consolidation, subject to the adjustments authorised or required by the following provisions of this Schedule and to such other adjustments (if any) as may be appropriate in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or practice.

(1A) Group accounts must be drawn up as at the same date as the accounts of the parent company.

(2) If the financial year of a subsidiary undertaking included in the consolidation differs from that of the parent company, the group accounts must be made up-

- (a) from the accounts of the subsidiary undertaking for its last financial year before the end of the parent company's financial year, provided it ended no more than 3 months before the parent company's; or
- (b) from interim accounts prepared by the subsidiary undertaking as at the end of the parent company's financial year.

3.(1) Where assets and liabilities to be included in the group accounts have been valued or otherwise determined by undertakings according to accounting rules differing from those used for the group accounts, the values or amounts shall be adjusted so as to accord with the rules used for the group accounts.

(2) If it appears to the directors of the parent company that there are special reasons for departing from subparagraph (1) they may do so, but details of any departure, the reasons for it and its effect must be given in a note to the accounts.

(3) The adjustments referred to in this paragraph need not be made if they are not material for the purpose of giving a true and fair view.

4. Any differences of accounting rules as between a parent company's individual accounts for a financial year and its group accounts must be disclosed in a note to the latter accounts and the reasons for the difference given.

5. Amounts which in the particular context of any provision of this Schedule are not material may be disregarded for the purposes of that provision.

Elimination of group transactions.

6.(1) Debts and claims between undertakings included in the consolidation, and income and expenditure relating to transactions between such undertakings, must be eliminated in preparing the group accounts.

(2) Where profits and losses resulting from transactions between undertakings included in the consolidation are included in the book value of assets, they must be eliminated in preparing the group accounts.

(2) That event is referred to in those provisions as an “acquisition”, and references to the “undertaking acquired” will be construed accordingly.

8. An acquisition shall be accounted for by the acquisition method of accounting.

9.(1) The acquisition method of accounting is as follows—

(2) The identifiable assets and liabilities of the undertaking acquired must be included in the consolidated balance sheet at their fair value as at the date of acquisition.

In this paragraph the “identifiable” assets or liabilities of the undertaking acquired means the assets or liabilities which are capable of being disposed of or discharged separately, without disposing of a business of the undertaking.

(3) The income and expenditure of the undertaking acquired shall be brought into the group accounts only as from the date of the acquisition.

(4) The interest of the parent company and its subsidiary undertakings in the adjusted capital and reserves of the undertaking acquired shall be set off against the acquisition cost of the interest in the shares of the undertaking held by the parent company and its subsidiary undertakings.

For this purpose—

- (a) “the acquisition cost” means the amount of any cash consideration and the fair value of any other consideration, together with such amount (if any) in respect of fees and other expenses of the acquisition as the company may determine; and
- (b) “the adjusted capital and reserves” of the undertaking acquired means its capital and reserves at the date of the acquisition after adjusting the identifiable assets and liabilities of the undertaking to fair values as at that date.

(5) The resulting amount (if positive) shall be regarded as goodwill, and (if negative) as consolidation difference.

(6) Negative goodwill may be transferred to the consolidated profit and loss account where such a treatment is in accordance with the principles and rules of section 244 and schedule 15.

10.(1) Where a group is acquired, paragraph 9 applies with the following adaptations.

(2) References to the undertaking acquired shall be construed as references to the group, and references to the assets and liabilities, income and expenditure and capital and reserves of the undertaking acquired shall be construed as references to the assets and liabilities, income and expenditure and capital and reserves of the group after making the set-offs and other adjustments required by this Schedule in the case of group accounts.

(5) The book values immediately prior to the acquisition, and the fair values at the date of acquisition, of each class of assets and liabilities of the undertaking or group acquired shall be stated in tabular form, including a statement of the amount of any goodwill or negative consolidation difference arising on the acquisition, together with an explanation of any significant adjustments made.

(6) In ascertaining for the purposes of subparagraph (4) or (5) the profit or loss of a group, the book values and fair values of assets and liabilities of a group or the amount of the assets and liabilities of a group, the set-offs and other adjustments required by this Schedule in the case of group accounts must be made.

12.(1) A note to the accounts shall state the cumulative amount of goodwill resulting from acquisitions in that and earlier financial years which has been written off.

(2) That figure shall be shown net of any goodwill attributable to subsidiary undertakings or business disposed of prior to the balance sheet date.

13. Where during the financial year there has been a disposal of an undertaking or group which significantly affects the figures shown in the group accounts, a note to the accounts shall state—

- (a) the name of that undertaking or, as the case may be, of the parent undertaking of that group; and
- (b) the extent to which the profit or loss shown in the group accounts is attributable to profit or loss of that undertaking or group.

14. The information required by paragraph 11, 12 or 13 need not be disclosed with respect to an undertaking which—

- (a) is established under the law of a country outside the United Kingdom or Gibraltar; or
- (b) carries on business outside the United Kingdom or Gibraltar, if in the opinion of the directors of the parent company the disclosure would be seriously prejudicial to the business of the parent company or any of its subsidiary undertakings.

Non-controlling interests.

15.(1) The formats in Schedules 11 and 12 have effect in relation to group accounts with the following additions.

(2) In the Balance Sheet Formats a further item headed “Non-controlling interests” is added—
